

December 28, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You. Merry Christmas. Thank You for the greatest gift, Your Incarnation, Your taking on the role of humanity, Your sacred life, followed by Your most holy death and Resurrection. Thank You, sweet Savior, Lord God of all! Mere words cannot adequately express my gratitude, Jesus. May my life be an expression of my gratitude, my belief in You, Jesus, of my love. May I give witness to You, my Lord and my God by how I live my little life. Lord, I have nothing to give You for a gift on the Feast of Your Holy Nativity. May I give You all that I am, Lord. Even though my life is a gift from You, Lord I willingly offer it to You in return. What may I do for you, my Lord?

“My dear daughter, all I ask is that you give love to Me; that you long for Me. That is a great gift and one that I willingly receive. This gift of love and service to me, this gift of yourself is one that we will unwrap together over your lifetime. Gifts of love are most satisfying when they are reciprocated with love. The gift of the heart is precious, and I lovingly accept this gift which you give to Me, My dearest daughter. You are My precious child, My loyal friend. Oh how I love you, My daughter and My son. Oh how I love your children and grandchildren (names omitted). Your Jesus loves you beyond measure.”

Thank You, dearest Lord God. Thank You for Your kindness, Your mercy. Thank You for mentioning my children and grandchildren. You know everything, Lord. You know my intentions for my children and grandchildren. We have discussed them repeatedly, Jesus and I know You are so kind, patient and merciful that You never tire of hearing my requests on their behalf. I bring all of these concerns, the concerns of my heart and lay them at Your feet as an offering to You. Do all according to Your holy and perfect will, my Jesus. Jesus I entrust my entire family including (names withheld). Bless all in my family and please bless the marriages of my siblings. Heal all wounds that make marks on our hearts, Lord. On this Feast Day of the Holy Family, Jesus, please heal each member of our family, Jesus. Thank You, Lord for the large number of souls released from purgatory on Christmas Day and I praise You and thank You for releasing all the souls in purgatory this Christmas, Jesus. What a beautiful, wonderful, amazing gift. You are the gift, Jesus and yet You continue to pour out Yourself on us, Your poor children. Thank You, Lord God. I love You. We love You.

“My child, I do so love poor humanity. I Myself became Man, took on the flesh of humanity, the hunger, cold, the ungratefulness, and all associated with being human. I felt the same emotions, the same love, the friendship, loyalty of My brothers and sisters who were also My children. I felt the sting of betrayal, the pain and sadness of losing loved ones. I, God and Man experienced each and every emotion known to mankind. In My brief time on earth, I experienced every emotion, every circumstance so that none of My children could ever say truthfully that I, the Lord God does not understand what it is to be human. I took upon My pure heart all sins of mankind. This was more torturous than the physical wounds from My Passion, little one. My Sacred, merciful, pure, sinless heart and mind, had to experience the most excruciating pain from humanity's sins; sins which I had never before known in the way a sinner knows and experiences sin. I, your Jesus have the utmost compassion for poor souls separated from Me due to mortal sins, for I experienced this pain. It is excruciating pain, My poor lost children and I died to free you from this separation from Me, this darkness. You no longer need be separated from Me, children. Return to your loving Jesus who longs to forgive you and set your poor, captive heart free from the chains, the bondage to evil that you have allowed. Come, My children. You are also victims of evil, of those who have taken advantage of you. I, your Jesus, understand what occurred to wound your precious heart. These wounds caused many feelings within you. Feelings of being unloved, rejected, unworthy of love. These feelings are natural, My sweet children and are the consequence of others' sins. This woundedness had a profound effect on you, causing much suffering, much longing for love, and acceptance. You looked for this love and acceptance from those responsible for your care and when your love was met with further rejection, hurt, and even abuse, you became hardened, bitter, resentful. Jesus understands better than you can imagine, for you see, My poor, hurting children, I, your Jesus was betrayed also. One of My own Apostles betrayed Me. I gave only love and mercy and was met by cruel rejection, betrayal and by murderous plots. Yes, My wounded children, I your Jesus, your God have experienced what you are feeling. Come to Me, you who labor under the great weight of a life of rejection and mistreatment, and give this to Me. I will lighten your load, the heavy crosses which you have been made to carry by those who did not know love. I will heal you of these deep wounds. Open your fearful hearts to Me, Jesus for you are completely safe with Me. But, you are concerned because these wounds caused you to sin, also? I understand. Bring these sins to Me, also and let us begin anew; for behold, I make all things new, My children. Turn you backs on these sins, this lifestyle that you lead out of your woundedness, for I am the great physician. Read My Gospels. See how I healed the outcast of My day in Israel, those who were crippled, those who had the disease of leprosy, those who were mute, deaf, and blind. You see, My children, in those days, one who had a disease was considered by the culture to be steeped in sin. This was not true, of course however those who were ill, or deformed from birth, were cast off, isolated, left alone. This horrible treatment was undeserved and yet man, through ignorance did so when what My little ones, My wounded and sick ones needed and need most is love, mercy and compassion. Read about Me, My children who are so very wounded, so you will come to understand the way God the Father responds. I, your God am the God of mercy and compassion. I healed, I forgave. I never spoke or even thought words of condemnation on one living in sin or racked with the pain of disease or the pain from separation from God, the One who loves you. I whispered words of life, healing, love and light. It is I who whisper these words to the ear of your heart today. It is I, your Lord and Savior, your Jesus. Come to Me, children of My heart and allow Me to love you, to heal you, to forgive you. Little ones, wounded by the sins of others, and from your own sins, allow Me to come into your hearts. What have you to lose, My lost children? You have nothing to lose, but everything to gain. Do not fear, for I created you for love and I will never reject one who yearns to be loved. I solemnly assure you, I, Jesus will not reject one who has a repentant heart. Do not listen to the lies of the evil one who tries to convince you that you are unworthy of love. This is not true! It isn't a question of worthiness, but one of love. I love you because I love you. There is no way to change this truth My children. You have only to accept My love. Come now. Do not be afraid of your Jesus, for I am meek and humble of heart. Let us begin anew today. Come, we will walk together and you will know that you are never alone, for I your Jesus walk with you."

Jesus, Your love and compassion is overwhelming. It is difficult to write when I sense a small portion of the depth of emotion You have for Your children and at the same time I am driven to write for there is also a sense of urgency, Lord.

"Yes, My child. Time is of the essence and the time for conversion is now."

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, (name withheld) is so talkative in Adoration. It is difficult, Lord for me to listen to her and yet, I do not want to be rude to her. I feel I am being rude to You, though, Lord. I am sorry, Jesus.

“My daughter, you were right to listen to her and then after a time, to turn your attention back to Me. You did this in a way to signal to her that you are here to pray, but still you showed her compassion.”

Jesus, it seems disrespectful to You and to those who are here to pray in silence.

“My daughter, I would not be pleased if you were rude to My daughter. I am compassionate, and I know your heart. I watch you struggle to show love to (name withheld) and also the pull within you to give Me your full attention. I know everything and I also see your heart and know your thoughts. You are not idly talking, you are patiently listening which in this case causes you to suffer for love of Me, your Jesus. All is well, My child you have not offended Me by showing love.”

Thank You, Jesus. I also do not want to waste the precious moments with You. I love You. Coming to Adoration once a week does not seem to be frequent enough for Me. I would like to be here every day.

“My child, that would be nice, and yet, in your state in life, not practical. If you would like to stop in one day during the week, I will be here waiting.”(smile)

I love You, Jesus, You have a wonderful way of putting me at ease. This is beautiful, Lord. It reminds me of how my mother and my grandmother could cause me to feel when I had “the weight of the world” on my shoulders. They could always lift my burdens and make things look much brighter. Thank You, Lord for showing me this characteristic of Yours through them, Jesus. I didn’t realize they were introducing me to a quality of Yours. I see now that every beautiful trait we experience in others is a glimpse of Your character, Your virtue. Thank You, Lord for putting Your fingerprint on every person and creature. So many things in my life, and so many people prepared me to experience Your love. Jesus, I am sorry for those who were not loved by their families. I don’t know where I would be without the love of my family, but I shudder to think of it. Thank You for my family, Lord. Use me to bring Your love to others. Help me to be joy, to be love, to be merciful to those who have not experienced unconditional love. Help me, Jesus to be a conduit of Your grace. Use me, Jesus in whatever way You desire and wherever You desire, Lord. Work through me, Jesus, though I am an unworthy vessel. I am willing, nonetheless.

“Thank you, My child. Yes, My little lamb, I am using you and I will continue to do so, because of your ‘yes’ to Me. I thank you for your willingness to serve Me by serving others. I need My children to carry My love to a darkened, loveless world. I, My child was and still am a sign of contradiction. Meditate and contemplate My life of simplicity, poverty, detachment, service, love. Contemplate My life from My birth, to My death and Resurrection. Contemplate these mysteries, My children of light. You will receive graces just for contemplating Me. You will receive beautiful insight from My Holy Spirit and this will carry over into your lives. Be like Me, My children. I will help you. You are all to be a sign of contradiction to this dark world, also just like your Jesus. What does this mean, My Children of the Renewal? I will explain. You will stand apart from the current age of disobedience. You will stand apart from the current culture that is self-serving, narcissistic, focused on only what gratifies. You, My children are to be different, for you are Christ bearers. You must bring Me to the world. You are to be detached from materialism, focused on Me and on your fellowman, sacrificing your time in service to others, and to My church. This, My children is countercultural, and therefore you will stand out. Do not be concerned with how you appear to others especially those living in darkness. Be focused on Me, following Me and loving Me. That is what is most important during your brief tenure on the earth. Your lives are fleeting, My children. Take each day, with gratitude to the Father, and set about serving the Kingdom. The Kingdom of God lasts forever and by serving Me, you are using your time on earth, very wisely. Whatever you do, no matter how small or hidden it may appear, do so in the name of the Lord. Offer each task, each gift of service to Me, your Lord and Savior. Offer your work for souls, My dear friends. Souls need you, and in this way, those you do not even know will receive the benefit of your prayers and your works.”

Thank You, Jesus that You allow us to participate and cooperate in Your plan of salvation. Help us to be all that You need us to be. Lord, have You anything more You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My daughter. There is much more to discuss. The time has come that begins the next phase which includes much spiritual as well as physical preparation. My children, I invite you to increased prayer time and to increase your offerings/sacrifices. I have asked some of My children to fast an additional day on bread and water. I ask those of you who are unable to do so, to offer another form of sacrifice. This is not Lent, I realize, and yet, I invite My children of light to live the season that begins just after the Feast of the Epiphany as if it was Lent. Offer penances and sacrifices to Me, My children for the souls who are far from Me. Decide what it is you will do without. Mortify yourselves, and I will pour out grace for conversion on those who are far from Me. Trust Me to do this, My children. I need your cooperation and your action. Increase the time spent in prayer each day. If only by ten minutes or so. Let us begin a time of ‘storming Heaven’ for graces of conversion. The hour is late, My children. The hour is late. The time of great trials is upon you and soon it will be too late for conversions. Sanctify your homes. Have them blessed by My holy priest sons. If your homes have already been blessed, have them blessed again. Entrust your homes and your families to My Sacred Heart and to the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. In this way, you will enjoy protection. Do not fear, My Children of the Renewal and do not be fooled by this calm before the storm. All I have said will be fulfilled. Pray, pray, pray.”

Lord, what of those who will not have their homes blessed either because they do not know about this, or because they have left the church?

“You may use blessed salt, and bless their home as a lay person. This is not as effective, however I will allow it to suffice in this time of great need. Be My little apostles of love and mercy. For those of My children who are not Catholic, you may also invite one of My holy priest sons to bless your home. Let them know up front that you are not Catholic but that you desire a blessing for your home. Some will come to do this. For those who will not, simply go to another priest and continue to ask until one agrees. This is very important, My children. Your blessed homes will be a sign like the blood on the door posts when My children of Israel were captive in Egypt. This was the night of the Passover and this foreshadowed the priestly blessing of homes which is to be a sign for this current age. Though not a visible sign to humans, a spiritual sign to the spiritual world and a sign that you and your household belongs to Me, to the family of God. This blessing will protect you and all who dwell under your roof as well as all who are there under your roof during the coming calamities.”

Thank You, Lord that You offer so many means of assistance.

“Yes, My child. I am the Good shepherd and I care for My sheep. Your physical homes, your bodies must also be blessed. Go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation frequently, and be open to the graces I have in store for you. In this way, you will all be prepared physically and spiritually. Be ready, My children. Be ready at all times.”

Jesus, this is very serious now. I feel as if Heaven is somber and it seems strange knowing we are in this beautiful Feast of the Nativity. Even so, the liturgical season leading up to Christmas, is also very somber so I suppose it shouldn't seem strange.

“My daughter, contemplate My Incarnation and My Nativity. I desire to prepare My children to receive Me anew so that I may be born in the hearts of My children in a very real way. Just as in the stable in Bethlehem. This is the meaning of My Mother's message to the visionary from Medjugorje. Open your hearts, My children, to receive your newborn King. Allow Me to reign in your hearts anew. I am the returning King, and I desire to reign first in the hearts of all of My children and in this way, the Renewal will come to pass. First, I desire to renew the hearts of My people and next I desire to renew the face of the earth. Please cooperate in My plan for My remnant, for this is the plan of My Father from before the creation of the world.”

What an amazing revelation, Jesus.

“My daughter, you hesitate to write the word, 'revelation' and yet this is the correct word, the most accurate. My child, I am revealing Myself in these days like no other days in the history of mankind for these are the most urgent of times. Many, many souls are in danger of perishing forever. I come, the Savior of the world, to seek the lost, to save. I love My children and I long for all to accept the gift of your inheritance, My children. This gift, that you are to inherit, is My heavenly kingdom. A life, after being born into Heaven, of living in the physical presence of your Father in Heaven and in union with the entire family of God. Begin this life now, accepting My love, My forgiveness, My way. My children, if you have not yet decided for Me, hold out your hand and allow My Mother Mary to take it into Her beautiful, pure and loving hand. She will take your hand and lead you to Me. Do not be afraid. If you fear Me, you will not fear My Mother who is the most gentle, loving soul, ever created. She is human and completely human, like you. You have nothing to fear in My Mother Mary who is most gentle, and very humble. She is a perfect teacher. She will show you the way to Me, Her Son.”

Thank You, Jesus, my Lord. You are all good and deserving of our love and praise. Thank You that You are also our friend and brother. Praise You, King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Help us to open our hearts to You, Jesus. Lord, sometimes it may be helpful for those who fear, to picture You in Your infancy. Perhaps they could imagine themselves kneeling at Your manger and asking for forgiveness from the Infant Jesus. It is hard to be afraid of a beautiful, sweet baby.

“Yes, My child. My Spirit has inspired this in you. This is a most beautiful way to be reunited with Me. Come to Me, My children. Come to the stable in Bethlehem and adore Me as Baby Jesus. In My Divinity, I can forgive your sins regardless of My age. I am God and am therefore outside of time as you know time. Just as My death on the cross ransomed you from sin long before you were born, and retained the soul of My pure Mother in Her Immaculate state, so can I forgive sins now, and was able to as an infant, for I Am came as an infant, clothed in human flesh and like you in every way, except sin. Come to Me in the stable at Bethlehem just as the simple shepherds, who had great faith in Me; just as the wise men who followed My star for miles and miles across the barren desert. Come to Me, all you who are weary and heavily burdened and accept Me as Baby Jesus into your hearts. I desire your love and friendship. I am poor, and humble and there is nothing you need bring, but your open hearts, your seeking hearts. Come, My beautiful children of love, for I, your Jesus love you and you are the children of My love. Let us begin anew with a fresh start. How often have you said, half-joking that you would like a 'do over.' This is your chance, My children. Allow Me to fill your empty hearts with the light of My love. Then, you may carry My light to others who are in darkness, the darkness of sin. Be carriers of My light and My love. Take My gift of peace to a war torn world. For some, this war exists within your own families. Carry My peace in every corner, every avenue that I send you, for if you do not My children, who will? I, your Jesus am counting on you."

Jesus, thank You for Your great plan, which is too large for me to comprehend. Thank You that You invite us to participate in the greatest project, the greatest plan of all times. You are amazing, and Your love is endless. Thank You for loving us in spite of ourselves!

"You are most welcome, as are all of My children. You are all welcome to Me, your Jesus. Share in My life. Share My love. Be My sign to a world in darkness."

Jesus, some have asked me why You choose to use me, and others in this day, when we have Our Lady of Medjugorje. I do not know the answer. I don't understand this myself. I try to answer the best way I know how, with Your grace, however I do not know why either. I simply say this, and I reply that this is a mystery. I understand what they mean, though. After all, Our Lady says all that is needed. If we only follow what She tells us in Her messages, we would all be on the path to You, our Savior. What should I say, Jesus? No one can compare to Your Holy Mother Mary. I, of all people know that I am nothing, and Our Lady is the bright star pointing us to You, showing the light to illuminate our path, just like the Star of Bethlehem guided the wise men to You. Tell me, dearest Jesus, if it be Your will, why You have many messengers when Your Holy Mother suffices?

"My little lamb, it has always been this way, has it not? When My beautiful Mother Mary lived in Nazareth, God in His wisdom used John the Baptist to prepare My children of Israel for My ministry, did He not? Why is it, that God the Father deemed it necessary for John to be the final prophet, even though My Mother was present on the earth? This may seem obvious to you, but let us examine it together. My Mother's role at the time My ministry began was less about being My Mother, though She truly was, and is and always will be. The focus shifted, though to one of Disciple, just as She was focused before the angel appeared with glad tidings and announced the Good News of the Messiah. She was following Me, and setting a perfect example for all of My disciples, so all could see that even the woman chosen by God before all time to bear the Messiah, was a follower of Jesus. She was also preparing for Her role as Mother of the Church which I made public during My Passion when I said, 'John, behold your Mother. Mother, behold your son.'" John the Baptist had a specific role that was necessary to reach people who were not exposed to My dear and perfect Mother. For those who were, their hearts were transformed. Such is the grace of God present in My Holy and perfect Mother. God has used prophets in every age to be the messengers, the mouthpieces for Him. God cannot change for He is perfect and is of no need of change. A good question to those who ask would be, 'Why wouldn't God use others?' He always has, as evidenced in Sacred Scripture. I chose 12 Apostles as My first Bishops. Why 12? Why not 1? Why any, when I had My Mother? I understand, dearest child of My heart, that you know the answers to these questions, but I pose them for clarity. God chooses what and whom He chooses to touch the many souls that only those He chooses can reach. He also chooses those He knows will say 'yes' to Him. Sometimes He chooses those He knows will say 'no thank you' but even this serves to draw others closer to Me, and often serves as an example of a road not to take; as in the example of poor Judas Iscariot. All graces for this age flow through My Mother. These graces, that originate from Me, God are poured out for all. Many graces fall by the wayside, unaccepted as an unopened and forgotten gift under a Christmas tree. My child, My ways are not man's ways. Pay no heed to those who do not understand, or who reject My messages, for many, many rejected me, and many, many reject My Mother at Medjugorje. As difficult as it is to accept, it is true. If they reject you, know that they rejected Me first and they also reject My Holy Mother, Mary."

Jesus, I do not care if they reject me, but only that Your messages are being rejected. I completely understand why they would be rejected coming from someone like me, but I don't want Your beautiful words of life to be discounted because of me. There are so many other people far holier who are more worthy messengers than I. I do not question being Your secretary, Lord but there are others who would be more credible.

"My little one, I choose whom I choose. I do not make mistakes, and I choose whom I desire, and who is open and willing. Leave all to Me, My child. You are to continue in this work and we go forward together. Trust in Me, My child. I do not choose what the world thinks is best. I do not choose the best, I choose whom I choose."

Ok, Jesus. Thank You for allowing me to be Your secretary, as flawed as I am. I love You and will do whatever it is You ask, providing You give me the needed graces (which I trust You will provide) . Thank You for explaining things to me, Lord. I am simple and need Your direction in every aspect of life. Glory to You, Lord God of Hosts. Praise to You, my Lord and King. Thank You for allowing this time to adore You and to speak with You, Lord. I love You. Help me to love You more. Increase my love for You, Jesus. I desire to love You even more than possible for my little heart. Jesus, please heal my grandson. He is often sick and suffers so much for a little child. Please help his immune system to grow stronger to fight off the many illnesses he contracts. He is very uncomfortable, Lord and yet he prays for others and has so much compassion. He is very kind and loving and also brave. Thank You for the gift of his life, Lord. Guide him and help him to grow into a loving, faithful, strong Christian man. I love You, Lord and thank You for the many blessings You give me, none of which are deserved, but for which I am most grateful. Please bless and protect all of our family and all of our friends, Jesus. Help us to stand firm for You, Lord even if we are persecuted for our faith. I want to live and die for You, Jesus.

"Thank you, My little lamb. I am grateful for your love and fidelity. I bless you and your husband now, in the name of My Father, and in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go now in My love and in My peace. I remain with You."

Thank You, Jesus.

December 21, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Glory and praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ! Thank You, Jesus that my husband and I are here with You today in this glorious Adoration Chapel. It is so very refreshing, and renewing to be in Your Eucharistic presence. Thank You for making Yourself available to us, Lord. You come to us in this simple piece of bread, Our Lord God Who is the Creator of the universe. Jesus, You also became man and entered into the human race, taking on flesh, and coming as an infant to be like us in all ways except sin. How extraordinary! What an incredible event, the Incarnation. All of earth and even the heavens were groaning in expectation of the Messiah. How full the hearts of those who saw You, the infant wrapped in swaddling clothes. Oh, Jesus, how sweet, how indescribably pure, how majestic You must have been. How humble You are, Lord to come to us as a newborn baby, completely dependent on Your creatures to care for You. No wonder,

You selected only the best, the most holy, humble, beautiful parents, Your Holy Mother Mary and Saint Joseph to care for You. What if Our Lady had said, "No, thank you," to the Angel Gabriel? What a horrible thought, Lord.

Thank You, Blessed Mother for Your perfect, "Yes". I am sure, due to Your sinless nature, You could have given no other response but "Yes" since You surrendered Your life to God and lived in a pure and sinless way. Thank You for reversing Eve's "No". Thank You for being the Mother of the Church and of the entire world, due to Your perfect, humble, "Yes" to God. I love You dearest Mother Mary.

Thank You, Jesus for this priceless gift of the Incarnation. Help me, Jesus to more fully comprehend this great mystery and to be ever more grateful to You for all You have done for us. I love You, Lord and I too wish to give You my "yes", just as holy Mother Mary did when the Angel Gabriel announced the good news of Your coming. I, too desire to give You my "Yes" regarding the plans and the mission You have for us to cooperate with You to fulfill, just as the Blessed Mother gave You her "Yes" every day of Her holy life. She stood firm and solid in Her commitment to You, Jesus and I would like to be this way for You, also, Lord, though I am a sinner in need of continual conversion, and am unlike the Blessed Mother in countless ways, I would like to be more like Her, Jesus if that is Your will for my spiritual growth.

Dearest Mother Mary, please teach me to be like You. Help me to grow in love, faith and hope and be more like You so that God's Will comes first in my life as it did (and still does) in Your life.

Help my family to be more like the shepherds, who, after hearing the angels sing Glory to God in the highest, and upon hearing the proclamation of Your birth left all that they owned, all that they had to provide for their families, and travelled to see, to worship You, not knowing whether or not their flocks of sheep would still be there when they returned. Give us the graces to love heroically, Lord; the kind of love that gives without even considering the cost. I love You, Jesus. Help me to love You more.

"My child, My child, this is a worthy request. You are enclosed in My Sacred Heart where all love and mercy dwells."

Thank You, Lord for the gift of Advent where we await Your coming, in joyful hope.

"You are welcome, My daughter. You long to know what My birth was like, in all detail. You will know this one day, My child when you come to My heavenly kingdom where all of the mysteries of life and of My creation are made known to souls."

Thank You, Jesus! I love You. Thank You, my Jesus for my son, for his return to us. I am very grateful for Your love and for Your intervention, Jesus. Praise You, Lord God!

"You are welcome, My child. Your Jesus will never fail you. I hear the prayers of all My children and answer them according to My will and in the way that is best for each soul."

Jesus, You have said on many occasions that we are to bring every issue and every decision to You. Lord, my husband wanted me to ask You if we should list the house "by owner" or if we should go through a real estate broker. Does it matter, Jesus or is this something we should decide? Is it better to list it for sale by owner so that we can determine the times and days it will be available to be “shown”? We do not want to have open houses on Sundays and we would like to be able to pray and discern who You want to purchase our home. We also do not want to lose some of the proceeds for the commission, if it isn't necessary to go with a realtor. Lord, this may seem like a childish question, but it is still an important decision, and one we do not want to make, without Your input.

“My child, I desire you bring every decision to Me, and this is what I want all of My children to do. That, in itself, is childish in My perspective, and is what I desire you be; like little children with Me, your God. Is it not what is written in the Gospel? I, your Jesus, want you to become like little children who depend on Me, who trust Me completely just as children trust their parents. I am pleased that you bring this question to Me. You may list your house for sale by owner. This will be more work for you in the beginning, as you will be involved with arranging every appointment, however, it will give you the ability to schedule around family events and family life in a way which is more conducive to peace and tranquility. It will be less pressure, also as you will not be the recipients of pressure from one eager to make commission. My child, do not be concerned that you and My son are lacking in expertise for you have family members and friends who can advise you. Be not afraid. You will have less stress in the process and more knowledge of details in which you will be involved and therefore can ask Me for direction. This is the way people sold their homes in ages past. They rarely made use of an agent to sell their homes, except in the case of the very rich. This is not necessary. You will learn to do many things you do not know how to do, or have never had to do before, in the future. Your family and those who go through the great trials will learn to do much more for yourselves due to the changes coming. Life will be simpler, but more challenging in some ways, as you learn to plant, grow, harvest and make goods that today are readily available in stores.”

Alright, Jesus. Thank You. We have become very dependent upon the available goods and services of our current culture and consequently think that we must hire people or go out and buy everything rather than doing for ourselves what our ancestors did. The things we have now are not really necessities, but we have become so dependent on them that they seem to be. When I told (name withheld) that there were no microwaves when I was his age, he asked me if we had to cook over a fire! I said, “No, honey we had ovens/stoves, just no microwaves.” I don't think he understood that stoves and ovens existed before microwave ovens. It isn't in his paradigm, so he thinks they all go together (appliances). In the same way, I cannot imagine how our lives will change, Lord since we have not experienced a primitive way of living.

Oh, Jesus, I am so glad that my daughter and grandchild are here. I am very, very happy to share this lovely Adoration time with them.

“My daughter, I am well pleased to have them visit Me in Adoration of My presence in the Blessed Sacrament. I am most pleased to have the little ones come to Me. I desire My daughters and sons who have children to bring them to Me where I can shower abundant graces upon them. I thank your family for being with Me today, as this most important feast of My Nativity approaches. May all the little children come to Me. I love them so. Do not worry that they may misbehave for in this way, they will learn the value of Adoration. I desire to shower them with graces for love, graces for virtue, so lacking in this current age.”

Thank You for the graces You so willingly lavish upon us, Jesus. I love You. Thank You for Your love and benevolence for Your poor children. Jesus, have You anything more to say to me? I wait patiently for Your direction, My Savior.

“My child, though it seems I have given you everything you need to know, We have barely touched on what is needed. I wish to form you and your family so as to not only prepare you for My Father’s mission, but also for the time to come afterwards.”

And what is this time that You speak of Lord? Is that the time period in the Era of Peace?

“Yes, My little lamb. The Era of Peace will be just that, a time of peace. The earth will be renewed, but it will also be a time of rebuilding. You do not understand this, My child but I will explain. God will renew the earth, returning it to a state of purity as My world was created and as it was intended to be, before the fall of man in the Garden. Though the earth will be renewed, and returned to a state of beauty and freshness, I will still rely on My children to cooperate with Me and participate in a rebuilding process. You see, My child, mankind will still till the earth, growing food, though it will be easier, for the earth will be fertile and what man plants will yield much more fruit. The earth’s atmosphere will be changed, and more oxygen will be available to people and therefore it will not seem as difficult to work hard for you will not exert as much effort in the process. There will be an abundance of natural resources and beauty in nature. All will be inspired by the beauty of the renewed earth. Eventually new communities will spring up and My people will build dwellings in support of small close-knit communities. Many of these will be in the same areas of the refuges and current communities including those soon to be built, but as the earth repopulates, new communities will be built to accommodate a growing peoples, and also to retain the order of having small communities. People will also build small chapels close to these communities. All will be done in cooperation and in peace, rebuilding My world in the way My Mother and I desire. Life will be simpler, filled with time together, working on projects together, people of all ages participating in whatever way they can. All will walk with Me, God. All will pray to Me, believe in Me, Love Me. You will tell your children and grandchildren the stories of how it was to live in the age of disobedience, of the fear people had, the violence, the sin that abounded as a result of living without God. You will tell My children and future generations of the horrors of the times of great trials, brought about by mankind’s decision to live apart from God, the resulting disobedience and lack of love for your fellow man. You will then tell them of My great love for mankind, in spite of their disobedience, of how I purified the earth and brought My children of light into the Era of Peace. Your children and grandchildren and future generations will sing songs of praise to God for My mercy and goodness, and songs to remember those who were martyred during this age of disobedience, for there are and will continue to be many martyred for their faith in Me. These martyrs and the saints before from ages past will be the heroes in faith. These true heroes will not be replaced by false notions of ‘superheroes’ for the saints are the true heroes. They are your brothers and sisters in the faith and they have spilled their blood and lived heroic lives of virtue. These are the role models for My children of the Era of Peace. My children, those who are young when entering this new Era, as well as those born in the Era of Peace will grow up knowing peace, good will and mercy. They will grow in virtue and grace, so much more than the children of past ages, for there will be unity with Me and with their fellow man, such as has never been experienced since the time before the fall of man. This is how the Father intended His children to live, and this has been made possible only by the merits of His Son, Me, your Jesus, and by the fiat of My Most Holy Mother Mary, Mary of Nazareth. Her communities will spring up like oasis in the desert, and mankind will thrive living this new way of life under My Mother’s mantle. My daughter, you and others like you will teach My little children the Catholic faith, the Scripture and the way to live in the light of My love. All will be beautiful, peaceful and joyful. Man will work hard, rebuilding My earth, and rebuilding a civilization built on a foundation of truth, love and mercy. My children will know Me in an intimate way, and all will love, serve and honor their Lord God.”

Jesus, this sounds wonderful. I can see there will be much work to do, but I can tell that it isn't something I can compare to work as it exists now. If the very atmosphere will be different, and our way of life, I do not know exactly how it will be, but the picture You are describing sounds excellent. I prefer this, to the stresses of this age, the violence, hatred, conflict, ulterior motives and power struggles of this Age of Disobedience. I am anxiously awaiting the Era of Peace, Lord Jesus; however I realize the time of transition to the Era of Peace from the Age of Disobedience means we must go through the Time of Great Trials. I am not looking forward to that, and yet I know it must come to pass. I am consoled knowing that You will be with us in all things and through every age, Lord. Otherwise, there would be no hope. Thank You, for walking with us, Lord.

“You are most welcome, My daughter. I love you and I love each and every one of My children. I love every person created from the beginning to the last souls created before My second coming. All souls created, even those who were not allowed to be born, or who died of ‘natural causes’ in utero; all are deeply loved by Me. I love even those who do not return My love. These are the ones I grieve for, and who cause Me the most sadness. My children, all of you, even those who scorn Me, I love you and invite you to return to Me, the God who created you from nothing, who willed you to life. I love you. Come back to Me. I await you with open arms, My little prodigals. I am the good Father who forgives your sins and welcomes your return to the family of God. Return to Me while there is still time, for time is growing short. Do not wait too long, for soon darkness will envelope the earth. It will be darkness like never before witnessed on earth, for the very gates of hell will encroach such that a black, black night will entomb the earth and satan and his minions will be unleashed. You must return to me now; for then it will be too late. You know not the day, nor the hour that you will stand before Me. You know not the day, nor the hour that your life will be required. Choose life, My children of this age. Choose Me. I am the Lord your God. Turn your backs on this age of disobedience. Bring Me into your families. Make Me the Lord of your house. Serve Me. Love Me. Teach your children about My love, for I do love you and I want you to live life to the full, which is to live life with Me. Nothing else will satisfy the emptiness, the longing in your heart. Nothing will fill you to satisfaction, except the love of God. Come back to Me, My lost little sheep. I am the good shepherd who lays down His life for you. Come to Me. I will restore you to the family of God. Your brothers and sisters need you. I need you. I need you because I love you. Come, My weary children, and allow Me to give you rest. If you refuse to return to Me, you will be outside of our family where you will not be protected. This time is like no other, I tell you and if you remove yourselves from the family of God, you are in fact choosing evil. To choose evil is to choose the evil one, and this is to throw away your inheritance, which is life in My heavenly kingdom. That is an unwise choice, My children and one which you should not make with no thought for your future. Please, My children I want all to enter into My Father's kingdom. I want no one to be lost, for you were created for love, for life, for salvation. Yet, I give you a precious gift called free will and therefore you must choose. It is your choice, but know that the consequences of each choice are eternal. Would that all of My children choose eternity with the heavenly family. Sadly, it will not be so, My daughter.”

Jesus, I am very sorry that Your heart, so loving and merciful, is so sad for those who choose evil over You. You are all good, Jesus and deserving of our complete love. Jesus, forgive us all, and me especially so for the many times I have not loved You well, but have put myself and my fears in first place before You. Help me to love You more and more, my Lord. I want to console You, Jesus. I know that those of us who love You can't make up for the sadness You have for the love You have lost or will lose, but I would like to spend the rest of my life on earth consoling Your Sacred Heart. Allow me to console You, my Jesus. I love You. What can I do for You, Jesus?

“Continue to visit Me in the Blessed Sacrament, My little lamb. Continue living for Me. Love all those around you. Love all I send to you, My children. Be kind to everyone, for each individual who crosses your path, whether in passing, in a car, in the grocery store, at work, or as you are out and about running errands, all are creatures of My heart, created in My image and likeness. Whatever you do to the least one, even casually, you do unto Me. Be love, My children of light, for in this way, hearts are softened and are opened to Me. Be mercy, as I am mercy. Forgive those who harm you; forgive those who persecute you. Do more than just forgive them, though this is most difficult, go further and love them. Love your enemies, forgive those who persecute you for in this way My Kingdom will come and My Will, will be done on earth just as it is in Heaven. My children, if you want to live in My heavenly kingdom, and I assure you, you do; then you must learn to love. You must live love. Practice living this now; for love will be the ‘rule’ of life in the Era of Peace.”

Thank You for this message of encouragement, Jesus. Thank You for Your coming into the world over 2,000 years ago in Bethlehem. Prepare our hearts, Lord for You. Make my heart open to receive You, Lord even if there is not room in others’ hearts. Jesus, I want my little heart to be like the little cave and stable where You were born, open to receive You. Humble, yet warm and loving. Make my heart a fitting dwelling place for You, Jesus. I am small, poor, and simple, Jesus but You chose the simple, poor stable to be the first dwelling place for our Lord and our King. Please come to my heart, just as you did in Bethlehem. I say ‘yes’ to You, Jesus. I do not say, ‘there is no room in the inn’, but instead I say, ‘Welcome, Jesus to my poor, humble abode. Though it is unsuitable for my Lord and my God, I welcome you and will do my best to love, honor and serve You. You are always welcome in the home of my heart, Jesus. I have nothing to give You Who created everything from nothing, Who has given me everything I have, but I give You me, Lord. I suppose that may be nothing, really since I belong to You already but whatever I am, I give to You and in service of You. I know that my husband and daughter feel the same, Jesus. We long to serve You and we long for the time of Your Mother’s and Your community. Help us to do all that is required and all You have asked to prepare for the work ahead. (Both interior work as well as exterior work.) We love You, Jesus. Lord is there anything more You wish to say to me?

“My child, there is much more, but for today I have given enough. This is all you can absorb for one day. Thank you for your sacrifice of love; for your time today. I will always remember each and every moment spent with me in Adoration. Even if you forget, your Lord does not. I am grateful for your love, My children. You are all very dear to Me. Go in My peace. Await My coming. Be attentive in prayer to My direction. Be attentive in prayer especially during the remainder of this Advent season. This Christmas, this Christ-Mass will be very special for My children of light who dwell in this dark age. Remember My coming in Bethlehem, when I dispelled the darkness by entering into human history, as Messiah. I call upon all of My children of light to be ‘light bearers’, and bring Me, the light of the world to your brothers and sisters living in darkness. Go in My peace, My children, to love and serve Me. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit.

Thank You, my Lord and my God. I love you.

“And I love you.”

December 14, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore and praise You, my God and my all! Thank You for holy Mass this morning, Jesus. Thank You for my daughter's recovery from surgery. Thank You that we could be together for Mass, Lord. I love You. Lord, I lay each one of my concerns at Your feet and ask You to take charge of them. I also give You my associated suffering, Lord to do with as You will. Please manifest Yourself to those who have not yet experienced Your holy love. Help them to open their hearts to You, our great God who is love and mercy. Be with all those who are suffering due to illness, loneliness, unemployment, grief, addictions, and anything at all that erects barriers to You, Jesus. Comfort the afflicted, Jesus who are so desperately in need of Your light and Your love. Lord, I come to You as a beggar, and implore Your mercy on our world. Help us by a great outpouring of Your Holy Spirit. Awaken us from our sleep. Imbue us with eyes to see and ears to hear so that we are aware of our Lord and our God who loves us more than we can fathom. Do not pass by us, Lord Jesus without a smile, a look of love from Your precious divine heart, for only one look from You will transform our barren souls by Your life giving streams of water. Set our hearts on fire for love of You, Jesus. Prepare me for Your coming, Lord. We wait in joyful hope for Christmas the great feast of Your holy birth. Jesus, prepare me for Your second coming, also whether I experience this on earth or when I stand before You after I pass from this world. Prepare my heart, Lord Jesus. Make my small heart into a warm, loving heart full of Your mercy, compassion and love. I love You, my Jesus and I want to love You more.

"My daughter, I thank you and your husband for being here with Me in this small chapel, an oasis of peace. I accept your prayers, your requests and your gift, the gift of your suffering. When My children give Me their concerns and their suffering, My power to heal, to console, to change hearts is unleashed. Would that all of My children would give Me these gifts. Bring Me your burdens children of My heart, so that I may heal, renew, and refresh you. My heart is overflowing with love and mercy for the world. I long to give My children My mercy."

Thank You, Lord Jesus. Please give us Your mercy, Lord. Transform our hearts, Jesus. Bring about a great outpouring of Your Spirit and renew the face of the earth. We long for this. We wait for this, Jesus.

"Thank you, My daughter. It will come to pass according to My Father's plan. He wills it. All in His time, My child."

Lord, please help me as I go about the week with all of the busyness, the commitments and the demands, to keep my focus on You. This is a very holy season, Lord and Advent often passes by with my lack of attention to prayer. Sometimes I wish I could lock myself away and be still, sitting with You, contemplating Your life, Your birth, what it would have been like to have been with the shepherds when the host of angels appeared to them singing Gloria. How amazing the sight, the great proclamation must have been. Jesus, there are so many demands placed on us by our jobs, our culture, the many commitments that come from the schools, work, etc. We are all rushing around because of the worldly "celebration/observation of Christmas," though so many fail to mention Your holy name, or why it is we are preparing for Your birthday. It's such a distraction all of the noise and clamor, the functions planned, the purchasing of gifts, wrapping, sending cards, etc. None of this is bad, Lord on a small scale, but it is completely out of hand. Help me to slow down and be with You, Jesus. You are the central figure in this great scene and yet the focus, is on the set, not the main character (excuse my analogy of a scene in a play). You know what I mean, Lord for You know everything. Please forgive me for the way I get caught up in this year after year. This time, I resisted, and now I realize I have so much to do that I become overloaded. I long to sit at Your feet, Jesus and just be with You. Give me Your peace, Lord. Help me to do Your will Lord and not mine. I want to change my lifestyle, Lord. Help me to simplify my life, Lord. Purify me of anything that is not of You, Jesus. Thank You for loving me as I am, Lord and for loving me so much that You don't want me to stay as I am. Give me Your grace, Lord Jesus to be as You want me to be.

"My daughter, this is a worthy prayer and one that I am answering. I am working in your soul and as you continue to invite Me to do so, I will. Transformation can occur a little over time, or a great deal all at once. It is different for each soul. It is not to be judged by you, but to be accepted, for only I know the rate of speed that is best for each soul's transformation. Still, to accept this, to invite this growth in holiness, is all that is needed on your part, for I, your Jesus will do the rest. Trust in Me, My little lamb."

Yes, Jesus. I trust in You.

"Rest in My presence now, My child. You are weary and need to lay your head on My chest. I will hold you and renew you."

Thank You, sweet Jesus. Thank You for Your peace, and for Your love. Thank You for always being here for me, Lord. Jesus, I am concerned that we may not have access to Eucharistic Adoration, when we move. Will you make it possible for us to adore You, Lord where we are going? If not, I feel as though I am abandoning You here. Please, Lord.

"My child, you will find Adoration, but you will not have ready access to it. What I mean by this, is that you will have to travel a distance to find Adoration. It is not as readily available as I am here in this Diocese. You and My son are going into missionary territory, in a manner of speaking. Do not be afraid, for I go with you."

Jesus, there are priests and Catholic churches where we are going. I understand the Catholic population is smaller there, but it is not as if we are going to some remote location that is unchurched.

"What you say is true, My little one, and yet, in some ways it will seem to you that it is."(unchurched)

Ok, Lord. Will You please help us to work with the priests to establish Perpetual Adoration? It wasn't here, either until some devoted lay people launched a campaign/project to garner support for Adoration. They then presented the names and numbers of those interested to the priest to demonstrate the interest and they began a building project to add a small chapel. Is it Your will that we do something similar, Lord Jesus? I can't bear the thought of being without Your holy presence in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar.

"My child, when you begin getting to know the priests, and I send My holy priest sons to you, it is then you will occasionally have Adoration. Be open to My will and one step at a time We will walk the path together."

Yes, Lord. Thank You, Lord. Jesus, have You anything more You wish to say to Me?

"Yes, My little lamb. Prepare yourselves for the initiation of My Mission through prayer and fasting. After the season of Christmas, I desire you and your husband to renew your fasting, adding one day more to the week. This is not something I am asking all of My children to do, though it would be of benefit to each one's soul; however I am specifically asking this of you to prepare your souls for the upcoming mission. When you fast, make known your petitions to Me and ask for graces specific to your calling. This may seem like a lot, and something difficult I am asking, however, it serves to prepare you more fully for the coming work needed. Allow this time of transition to be one of spiritual preparation as well as physical preparation (the packing, etc.). My child as I have said before, I ask much of you and My son. One does not go into battle, however, unprepared."

Alright, Lord. As You say. Your will be done. Give us the grace to fast one extra day, Lord for we struggle with fasting only two days a week.

"My daughter, this is one exercise that you will thank Me for later, for you must be spiritually prepared for this mission and I am guiding you in order that you be prepared. There will be difficulties ahead, and souls in need of your love and mercy. They will be in states you have never before witnessed. There will be 'road blocks' and the tempter will work hard to derail My plans for your family's mission, and therefore I ask you to increase your fasting to strengthen your souls and to guard against the future snares of the enemy. Also, I rejoin you and My son and My precious daughter to pray the prayers I gave to you, every day preferably in the morning. These prayers will serve to protect you from the enemy and keep your hearts open to Me and only Me. Trust in Me, your Jesus. For this important work that I have asked My pure Mother Mary to lead, will have every demon on earth howling."

My good Savior Jesus. You are very descriptive today.

"Does this seem surprising to you, My child that the demons howl at the plans of My Father that My holy, pure Mother desires to carry out? It should not be surprising. Even the conversation you had with My lost little one, (name withheld) caused the demons he was entertaining to howl. They despise My Mother Mary and they detest Our children and God's plans. You can imagine, My little ones, that they are becoming more and more incensed now that Her community is coming to fruition. The road ahead of you is filled with snares and traps and that is why I have you and your family surrounded by My angels. They will protect you and ensure your way is more solid, but there is only so much even they can do. For your part, you must fast more, pray more, isolate yourselves from anything of this world that distracts you from Me and the goal in front of you. My children, be as close to Me as you can, mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Frequent the sacraments and prepare yourselves as you would for a race, a marathon, a battle. Times are serious indeed, and becoming more so. There is no time for complacency, or being set in your prayer routine, for things are not status quo. Generations past may have had this luxury, but you, My children do not. This time of transition is growing shorter and shorter. The preparation on your parts, from a spiritual perspective must be at the same level of intensity as your physical preparation to move. I am taking a serious tone, My darlings for things are serious. I am truth, and I would do a disservice to you, My beloveds if I was not 'up front' with you. I love you and so We must prepare for what is to come. Your Jesus is counting on you."

Yes, Lord. We will do whatever You ask, for Your will is perfect and Your care for us is merciful and for the good of our souls and for those You place in our care. Help us to do all that You ask of us, Jesus.

“I will assist you. You have only to give Me your ‘yes’ and I will give you all graces needed to succeed in carrying out My Father’s plans for you and your family. My child, My little lamb, your Jesus asks much of you, I realize.”

Lord, I do not understand this statement that you often say. I feel completely different. I do not think we could ever do enough for You, Lord. It’s as if a wealthy benefactor, built an enormous mansion, acres upon acres of beautiful, lush property filled with gardens full of vegetables, orchard, wildlife and everything needed to sustain life, and then invited every poor peasant for miles, to come and live in his mansion, eating anything they wanted and at no charge. Then one day, after years of living in peace, and with renewed bodies from the rest and good food, he asked one of the peasants to sweep a small section of a sidewalk. I can picture this wealthy benefactor saying, “My dear friend, I realize I ask much of you, but would you please sweep this small section of the sidewalk to help me clear the path for others to walk?” Jesus, it seems absurd for You, the God of the universe to say You ask much when You have poured out Your life, Your blood, for us. You have given every good gift, Jesus. I can never do enough for You, Jesus. Whatever You ask of us, though we are small and incapable of anything good, will never be enough to thank You properly for loving and creating us, for opening Your heavenly kingdom to us. I only ask that You give me the graces needed in order to fulfill Your every request and to be what You want me to be, Jesus. Whatever it is, Lord, I know now that You never set Your children up for failure, and that You do not ask the impossible of us, so that means You will give us the graces needed to fulfill Your request, to do Your Holy Will. Otherwise, You would not ask us, Jesus. Thank You for directing our path, Lord. I am very grateful for Your instruction, Your lessons of love and Your words of life. You are my God and my all. Praise be Jesus Christ, now and forever! Only keep me close to You, Lord. Do not allow me to stray from You, not one step.

“My daughter, I see the love in your heart for your Jesus. I see your desire to please Me and this alone is most pleasing. Let us begin then, with an additional day of fasting each week, after the Christmas Season. For Advent preparation, increase your prayer time, and celebrate My Nativity. After the feast of the Epiphany will be the time to begin to fast an additional day each week. You may choose which day, but I would like your family to fast on the same days, as unity in your fasting will be more efficacious. Your mission is one, and your fasting should be as well.”

Ok, Jesus.

“My children, this will not be for an indefinite period of time, but only during this time of transition. I will give you further direction once you arrive in My Mother’s community. You will have time to get settled, oversee the building process and become acclimated to your new surroundings prior to the work beginning in the mission. This will all become more clear later, My children. I give you a small insight to give you hope, but We will take one step at a time. We will do so together.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, have You anything more to say to me?

“My child, I believe you have a question for Me?”

Oh, yes, Jesus. I almost forgot. My husband wanted me to ask You about the land. Is it something we should pursue or are we right where we need to be? What is Your will for us, Lord? We do not want to be “greedy” or do something outside of Your will.

“My daughter, it is alright for you to inquire about it. Remember, others also have free will, and you may not obtain this.”

Then, Jesus perhaps we should not inquire. If it is Your will, surely it will come about. If it is not Your will, we will not ask about it.

“My child, if you desire this for more space, your Jesus will use what you offer and it will be put to good use. If your area is smaller, I will also put this to good use. All of the land of the entire world belongs to Me and My Father. It makes no difference to Me what is yours legally, for all belongs to Me. You are concerned with doing My will and whatever occurs, having this attitude of pleasing Me is all that matters. For some, I would say, do not inquire, for it would be detrimental for their pride. I know that everything and anything you and your husband have, you willingly give it back to me, and therefore I say, it is fine for Me if you would like to inquire. If it is approved, I will help you obtain this that you desire. Either way, My will, will be accomplished with our without this land. I, your Jesus defer to your decision, and that of My son, your husband. I support you either way.”

(private dialogue omitted)

Thank You, Jesus. I love You! Thank You for allowing this level of discussion, Jesus. You bring such clarity to My foginess.

“My daughter, you honor Me by seeking My direction. When children bring decisions and concerns to their earthly fathers, it is a sign of respect; respect for their wisdom and knowledge, respect for their opinion based on experience. It edifies the Father in the same way. My children are encouraged to bring every decision, no matter how small, to Me. We will examine each decision and concern together for more clarity and direction. I desire involvement in My children’s lives, because I love My children dearly. I desire to give each child direction and guidance and to help all to avoid mistakes and sin. The more issues My children bring to Me, the more assistance they are open to receiving and the easier your journey in life will be, My children.”

Thank You, Lord for caring about everything in our lives. Thank You that You want to be involved in our lives, Jesus. You are wonderful, Jesus. Lord, is there anything else You want to tell me?

“My child, My little lamb, I wish to reassure you of My love and My protection. The times of great trials are approaching and soon you will hear of major calamities. They have already begun, however they have not reached their climax. When they do, you will understand. I reassure you and your family that I am with you. Take courage in knowing My Father has everything under control, though it will not seem that way from a worldly perspective. You will witness destruction and hear of horrifying events. You and your family are to remain calm and at peace for all will go according to My Father’s plans. The evil one and his minions will wreak havoc on the earth. He will use those who have gone astray to manipulate others, and to take advantage of the lack of peace. My children are to remain vigilant in prayer and to stay loyal to the Gospel message. Help those who are less fortunate, the victims of violence and injustice. Care for your brothers and sisters just as the Good Samaritan did. I urge you all, My children of light, do not withdraw from those in need, due to fear, for fear is not from Me. Trust in Me. Pray. Ask your angel guardians for protection and to direct your paths. Pray for the little ones who will not understand what is going on. Love them. Minister to them. The earth will groan, and tremors will occur. Remain solid in your faith and do acts of kindness out of love. This time shall pass, My children of the light. Be love to others. Be mercy to others. Be light. Bring My love to all you meet. Living the Gospel is the same regardless of the time in history, however you will be called to do heroic acts of love. Prepare yourselves now, by being love and mercy to others. You must live this now while it is not as difficult, while it does not 'cost' much to be love. Later, it will be much more of a sacrifice. If you have not learned to be love now, it will be very difficult to be all that I ask you to be, later when the environment changes drastically. Recall that My Era of Peace follows, and all will be well. Remain in Me. Remain in My Sacred Heart. Remain under My Mother's mantle of protection. Trust in Me and all will go well for you. I do not say it will go 'easy' for you; only that it will go well. I love you, My children. I, Your Jesus go with you."

Thank You, Lord. We love You. I love You!

"And I love you. Go in My Father's name and in His name I bless you. I bless you in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace, to love and serve."

December 7, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore and praise You, my Lord and my God! Thank You that we are with You today, Jesus. Thank You for holy Mass this morning and for allowing me to go to confession yesterday, Jesus. Thank You for the graces of absolution and healing that You convey to us, Your little children, through the priest. You are so great, so wonderful, Lord God of all to provide the Sacraments for us as a way to receive Your divine grace. Lord, forgive me for the many times I have sinned against You. I am sorry. I love You. Help me, Lord to grow closer to You, so much so that I never want to offend You, my precious Savior and friend. Thank You, Father God for sending Your Son to the world to redeem us and give us the gift of salvation. May we, one day, come to live in Your heavenly kingdom.

"My daughter, it is good that you are here with Me in the Blessed Sacrament where I await all of My children. I know that neither you nor My son feel worthy to be called to serve Me in this manner, nor do you feel worthy to receive My messages."

I am not worthy, Lord. I am a sinner. I fail You countless times, Lord. I don't know why You have so much patience and love for me, Lord, or for any of us for that matter. I only know that You do. For that I am very grateful. Thank You for Your love and mercy, Lord.

"My child, it is when you feel far from Me that you must come to Me. Do not think that when you are down, or have sinned, that you should avoid Me, your God, your Father, for it is then that I am most needed. It is in times such as this, that you should run to me. I love you and I long to embrace you, My daughter. Do not base your holiness on your feelings. Do not base your holiness on your feeling of being unloved. I love you. I will always love you and I will always love each and every one of My children. When you feel unloved, unworthy, come to Me. I will help you see with greater clarity just how much I, your Father, love you. Do not allow your feelings to dictate when you will or will not speak with Me, My child. Speak with Me each and every day and most especially when you feel unloved, unholy, or far from Me. Feelings pass like grasses that have been cut and blow away with the wind, or like the snow that is here one day and gone the next. When you have feelings of unrest or anxiety, bring them to Me. Give them to Me. I am a good and loving Father. I provide for all of My children. I will take your feelings, soothe you, and replace them with My peace. Do this as soon as these feelings are detected, so as to prevent you from acting on them or lashing out at your loved ones. Bring all to Me, My daughter. I will ease your burdens but you must allow Me to do so.”

Thank You, Father. Thank You for Your love and mercy.

“My child, as you practice doing this with Me, you will grow in your knowledge and your experience of My mercy. I will work in your soul and each of My children’s souls in this way, as I am allowed. As My children experience My love, first hand, you will grow in your trust of Me. Then, with confidence, spread My love and My mercy to others. Be merciful to others, as I am merciful. In order to understand what this means, My children must experience My mercy. Go often to the font of mercy, children. That is, to say, go often to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, My children. Great graces await you there. I now ask My children to seek this sacrament every two weeks. You must become holy and I wish all of My children to be purified by My Son in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Then, after receiving absolution from Him via My holy priests, present yourselves for Holy Communion, and receive My Son, body, blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist. In this way, more and more of My children will bear Christ to the world. As more of My lost children see the love, mercy and goodness in you and are attracted to your peacefulness which comes from God, they will want what you possess. They will want to know Me. This is how the Gospel is spread. By your love and mercy others will want to know Me. It is then that you may witness to them of My great love, and that of My Son. I am a loving God and I do not desire any of My children to perish. I desire all to know of My great love for them. I desire My children to accept My love and to return My love. I desire every person I created to dwell with Me in My heavenly kingdom. I love you, My children. Bring joy to Me, by loving Me in return. I know it is not easy for you, My children, who have not had loving, earthly fathers. It is difficult for you to open your hearts to Me, your heavenly Father. I assure you, My children, I love you. I will never abandon you, as some of you have experienced with your earthly fathers. I will never leave you. I will always listen to you. I will listen with rapt attention and respect. There is nothing too small or inconsequential for Me, dearest children. Have no fear. I will not reject you, for I made you. I created you, because I loved you and I still love you. There is nothing so terrible that would cause Me to stop loving you. Bring each concern, each hurt, each deep wound to Me, your Father and your friend. I will heal you, My children. My child the one reading this message who thinks this applies to everyone but you, know this; I am speaking to you, to your beautiful wounded heart. I whisper words of encouragement and love to you. Do not believe the lies of the evil one who tells you, that you are not worthy of My love. I created you for love. You were created out of My love, for My love. The evil one wants to separate you from Me. This separation is what you do not deserve. You deserve unity with Me, your beloved. I am a good Father. I am a forgiving Father. I am merciful; I am love. Open your heart to Me, My child and you will see. This is a time of great mercy, My child and I desire that you receive My mercy, and My love. I sent My Son to open the floodgates of mercy. He has done so, and yet so many people do not desire His gift of salvation. Open your hearts, children. Open your hearts and open your hands. Lift your eyes to Heaven and cry out to your God, your Father, who loves you. I will not disappoint you. I have many gifts awaiting you, but you must decide for Me. Love Me. Follow Me. My Son has laid out all for you. Read the scriptures and learn how good, how merciful, how obedient My Son was when He walked the earth. It is impossible to know of My Son, to experience His mercy and His love, and while loving Him in return to choose hell. Many of My children are choosing hell on a daily basis. Give up your evil lifestyles, your pagan practices and return to the God who loves you. My love knows no limits, no boundaries. Rejoice in My love, children. Rejoice, knowing the God of Heaven and earth and of all creation knows and loves you. Let us be on a first name basis. My children. We are friends. Begin now to love and follow My Son. Read holy scripture to learn of this love, to learn about how you are to love. Many changes are coming to your world. Come to Me now, so that the changes will be easier for you. Turmoil is always seemingly lessened when you have someone going through it with you. Allow Me to take your hand and we will go through these changes together. Do not fear. Come, let us begin now.”

Thank You, good and gracious Father. Thank You for Your love and mercy. Thank You for all that You do and continue to do for us, Your poor children. Help us to love You more, Father. You are worthy of all our love. Help us to be a witness to Your love. Give us graces to love.

Jesus, thank You for this time in Your presence. How wonderful, amazing and precious this time is in Your presence. I am most grateful for the words from God the Father. Help us to be witnesses to Your love, Jesus. I am very difficult sometimes, Lord and I am not always (often not) a witness to love, but irritable and grouchy. Forgive me for my ingratitude.

“My child, My little one, all is forgiven. Receive My forgiveness and My love and let us begin anew. There is much work to do and we must move forward. There is no time to dwell on past mistakes, and there is no reason to dwell on them, either. My forgiveness is like a cleansing rain that makes all things new. Live in the present, My daughter. Live in the love of My Sacred Heart. You are safe there, My darling daughter. You have a tendency to dwell on each failure as if it was a large obstacle coming between us. I am larger than any obstacle, of course and nothing you can do can separate you from My love, or that of My Father. Only believe in this, My little lamb. Give Me your shortcomings and do not take them back. Allow them to be behind you. Do not turn around and gaze at what you have left behind, but grasp My hand and walk forward with Me into the light, My child. Behold, I make all things new. To dwell on your past mistakes is to distrust Me. Do you see My child, why your Jesus wants you to leave them where they belong, in your past? Focus only on Me and we go forward together. This is what I want every one of My children to do. If I have forgiven you, and I have, why is it you do not forgive yourselves? Are you more worthy than I to judge? No, of course not. Then do not second guess My forgiveness, but rejoice in it and begin again. Too often My children hear voices from the past of others who have condemned you. These are lies, My children of light. If others who were responsible for raising you did not love you, did not forgive you, judged you and condemned you, their sin is also in the past. Release yourselves from the sins of your parents, loved ones, friends, and forgive them. Their sinfulness is not a reflection on your value, for you are priceless. You are intrinsically valuable to Me. I love you and you are Mine, and I, your Jesus am yours. That is the truth, and on that I desire you focus, for I am truth, I am life, I am love and we belong together. Come, children of My heart allow Me to love you, allow Me to heal you. Then, take My love to others who are wounded and have not allowed themselves to be loved by Me. Teach them about My love. I am counting on you, My children. Do not worry that your Jesus counts on you, for I will help you. I need you to spread My love and goodness.

This world has turned far from Me and that is why there is so much darkness. There is little love, My children. I am counting on you to receive My love, and to freely give what you have received. In this way, those living in darkness will see the light of My love. Do not fear the world that is in darkness, for fear is not from Me. Fear is from the evil one, My adversary and yours. You are safe, My children under My Mother’s mantle of protection. You are children of the King. Move about in My world with confidence and love. Ask your angel guardians and My most holy and pure Mother to protect you and walk each step in confidence and grace, for you belong to a heavenly family. Even if someone hurts your bodies, children, no one can hurt your soul when you are walking with your God. Make good use of the time you are given to serve Me, for the time on earth is brief, even for those who live a very long life (on earth), time is brief. You will agree with this concept when you are in Heaven. Be joyful in service to Me. I am grateful for each task, each sacrifice that you make for your brothers and sisters.

My daughter, time is short now and God the Father implores His children to step into the light, away from every act of evil that pulls one's soul closer to hell. The time of justice approaches, and during the coming calamities, that will erupt in countless places all over the world, many lives will be lost. Pray for those who have not yet decided for Me and for Heaven. Offer sacrifices for them, and continue to pray. I ask you and your family to begin another Divine Mercy Novena. Begin this on My Mother's Feast day, tomorrow. I would like many, many children to begin the divine Mercy Novena for those who have not experienced My love, and for those who will die in the coming calamities. Do this work of love and mercy, My children. I, your Jesus am requesting this. It is very important now to pray and to renew your fervor in prayer. Please do this for your Jesus, and for your brothers and sisters, living outside in the cold and darkness. Your prayers will be very beneficial to them, for there are special graces available in these darkest of times."

Thank You, Jesus. We will begin another novena. It will be a wonderful time to begin this on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Thank You for this gift, Lord. I just realized it will end on my husband's birthday. Thank You, Lord.

"You are most welcome, My child. I desire many more souls be converted and I ask for My children's cooperation. I remind My children of the importance of prayer. You do not see the power of your prayers or the way many hearts change as a result, but I do. Heaven sees the results and now more than ever you must renew your fervor. Pray, My Children of the Renewal. Graces are abundant and have been saved for just this time. Please do not waste them for yourselves, or for your brothers and sisters who are unaware because they have no knowledge of the heavenly assistance available to them. My children, if you could see what was coming, you would pray for hours and hours each day. Such are the coming calamities. These are prophesied in the readings of this liturgical season. Many of you, yes, most of you will see this time come to fruition. You will not regret the time you spent praying and preparing yourselves through fasting and sacrifices. You will only regret the time you spent idle, or wasted on worldly pursuits. Prepare yourselves for My coming into your hearts, for My children, I am coming. I love you and I desire that all be saved."

Thank You, Lord God of power and might. Thank You God of all creation, God of love. Help us to do Your holy and perfect will, for we are weak and we need Your grace, Your mercy, to continue in Your will. I love You, my Jesus. Help me to love You more.

"Yes, My little lamb. I will help you to grow in your love of Me. You are growing, though you do not see this. That is as it should be. Continue to love and serve Me. Be prepared, My son and My daughter, for your departure and the many 'good byes' you will say. Try not to be sad, but look forward to beginning the Father's mission in My Mother's community. Great trust will be required, and has been required for you to be at this point in our journey. Pray for an increase in trust. More trust will be needed on your part as you begin this new phase, for you are aware of some of the trials coming; of the needs of My holy priest sons and of the dire circumstances in which your nation will find itself. Allow My peace, My trust, My love, My mercy to wash over you like a warm and gentle wave from My ocean that you both love so much. Allow these qualities of My heart to carry you. I will carry you, My darling children. Go with the strength of My Spirit and do not be afraid. My Mother has every need, every decision your community will have and will make in Her spotless hands. All will be well. Remember to ask for Her guidance and that of St. Joseph as you prepare for your flight into Egypt. We, the Holy Family, go with you. Remember, My family that We, the Holy Family have gone before you.”

Jesus, what of my son? I want him to go with us, and his situation seems impossible, though nothing is impossible for You, Jesus.

“My little one, I know of your pain and how your heart is breaking. His is breaking also, though he tries to appear strong for you. See how he is growing and maturing in the Spirit? In My Spirit. I assure you that I am with him and he walks with Me. Do not be concerned about how things may appear as more information is shared with you, for I have told you that I am truth, I am justice. He is being treated unjustly and his accusers are false. Do not allow your heart to be troubled, little one. I allow this persecution for his good, for his growth. Pray that he continues to trust in Me, for I will do a great work through this final trial in his journey. I am healing him and ministering to him in this silence. He is bringing My love to others desperately in need. All will be well, My daughter.”

Jesus, will you please answer my prayer, my request that he be home, with us for Your feast day, Christmas?

“Continue to pray, My daughter. Ask the Blessed Mother to assist in this request. I am asking much of you, I realize My little lamb. Your Jesus asks much from His closest friends. Trust in Me, My child. That is all that is required and you will witness your miracle.”

Thank You, Jesus. I love You and I trust in Your holy and perfect will. Have you anything else to say to Me, Jesus?

“No, My child. That is all for now. Enjoy your time with your daughter this evening. I am with you. I am with your family, also. Enjoy one another at this time and celebrate My coming. I love you and I bless your entire family in My Father’s name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Go in My love. All will be well. Trust in Me, your Savior, your Lord, your Jesus.”

Thank You, Jesus. We love You!

“And, I love you.”
