

November 30, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Jesus, my Lord, my God, and my all, I am glad to be here with You today. I adore You, my Jesus, my Redeemer. Thank You for the many blessings You have given me and my family. Thank You for my friends, my family, this country, Lord. Bless us, Jesus and lead us to Your Way, the life of the gospels. Forgive me my sins, Lord and increase my capacity to love You and to love my neighbors. Help me to be open to the graces You desire to give me for an increase in holiness. Accept my sufferings, Lord and use them as You will. Bring others to faith and belief in You, Lord God Creator of all life. I pray for those who have not yet experienced Your love. Send holy souls to them, Lord and may their hearts be open to the Good News, the Gospel. Thank You for this first Sunday of Advent. Prepare my heart, Lord for Your coming. Make my heart open to Your Divine Light so that through Your grace, and if it be Your will, Your light will pass through me to others. Shine Your light in the darkness, Lord and illuminate our path so that we will see clearly the way You have laid out for us. May I be in the heart of Your Divine Will, in Your Sacred Heart, Jesus. May You draw me into the refuge of Your merciful, Sacred Heart where only love is known. Make my heart a flame of pure love for You, Jesus. Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I place all of my trust in You. You alone are worthy of complete trust, Jesus.

“My daughter, quiet your heart and receive My peace.”

Yes, Jesus. I welcome Your gift of peace. I invite You to dwell within my small, imperfect heart. I love You, my Lord and my God.

“And I love you, My child, My beautiful daughter. Allow Me, your Jesus to console you, to comfort you, to reassure you of My love and of My presence with you. I walk with you and I help to carry the heavy burdens that are on your heart. I see the love you have for your son and your other children. Heaven prays for your son and for you. My child, rest in the heart of your Jesus. I walk with him as I walk with you.”

Thank You, Jesus. Your words of encouragement are very consoling. Jesus have You anything else to say to me?

“Yes, My daughter. I wish to tell you that I console every parent who weeps for their children. I see their tears from love pour forth from hearts, heavy with burdens, heavy with grief. Give every burden to Me, My children of light for I am merciful. I care for each and every concern of My little apostles of love. You concern yourselves with following me, your Jesus and I concern Myself with you and all that matters to you. Trust in My holy will, Children of light. Your Jesus will never abandon you.”

Thank You, Jesus. There are many parents and grandparents who grieve for their children, who long for their children to walk with You. We know You do not abandon us, Lord and I pray that we will not abandon You. Lord, sometimes it is difficult to know what it is You would have us do for our children. It becomes clearer in prayer, sweet Jesus and for that I am very grateful. Console other parents going through trials, Jesus. Help them to lift their eyes to Heaven as You continue to help me to do. Praise You, God for being such a loving Father. Thank You, Blessed Mother for loving our children and being close to them when we often cannot be for so many reasons. Thank You, dearest Mother most holy for taking the hands of our children, and leading them to Your Son.

Blessed Mother speaks: “My daughter, I am a Mother and as one who loves Her children completely, I understand your motherly love. Continue to petition Heaven in this most difficult time in your family's journey and I assure you, many graces for peace, love and even joy will be given to you and to your entire family. My Son is all good, and He can be trusted. I assure you, My darling that He is working in these circumstances for good, for His holy and pure will, for His greater glory. My Son has a plan for your son's life, one that will come to fruition. There is further healing required for your son to move to the next level of love and trust in My Son, Jesus. In order for your son to be prepared for his calling, there is more work needed in his heart. As My Son has said, 'All will be well.' Trust in Him, My child. Continue to pray and seek His will for your life. He will look after your loved ones."

Thank You, my dear Mother Mary. Please pray for my son and for all of our children and grandchildren. I love You and am grateful for Your intercessory prayer. I love You.

Jesus: "My daughter, My pure Mother Mary knows what it is to stand by watching the suffering of Her Son. She is especially in tune with the sorrows of Mothers in exile on earth. Confide in Her and ask for Her help and for all needed graces. She is most merciful, for She is the Mother of mercy. She loves Her children most tenderly and most passionately. She loved mankind so much so that She stood by Me during My crucifixion knowing this act of salvation was required for all God's children, to open Heaven. She knew this My child, and this knowledge and Her pure and holy love, Her heroic love, enabled Her to stand by and to witness the most horrific event in the history of mankind. Her heroic love, Her selfless love, gave no consideration for Her own suffering or what Her life would be like without My physical presence on the earth. She unselfishly gave everything, every hope, every joy, Her life's love, Her precious Son, for Her spiritual children's salvation. She is to be greatly esteemed, for what other woman is to be compared to My holy Mother Mary? There is no comparison, My child, and yet, She wants Her children to be like Me in every way. She longs to assist each earthly child to higher degrees of holiness. My Mother will help each one of you, My children, to become more like Me, to be closer to Me. Ask for Her prayers, children. Ask My Most Holy Mother Mary for graces from Me, for she delights in dispensing graces."

Thank You, Jesus for sharing insight with me/us regarding Your Holy Mother, our Blessed Mother. As Your Mother, Jesus She had such intimate knowledge of You. She would have known (and knows) Your preferences, Your favorite food, Your gestures, Your expressions, Your concerns, and so many other small and beautiful tendencies. How close You and Your beautiful Mother Mary were while You walked the earth, Jesus. To love You, Lord is to love Your precious Mother Mary. Thank You for sharing Her with the entire human race. You are so very gracious, generous and benevolent. Thank You, Lord that You emptied Yourself out for love of mankind. Thank You for coming into the world, for taking on our human nature, for Your nativity. Jesus, prepare our hearts for Your coming. Maranatha. Come, Lord Jesus come. I love You, my God and my All!

"My daughter, I love you and I receive your praises. They are pleasing to Me. I, your Jesus am also grateful; grateful for your love and for your cooperation with My plan. Though you do not see each step in My plan you trust in it. This is pleasing and unleashes great power, many graces, and enables the progression of My plan to proceed unhindered. I remind you to bring each and every concern to Me in the moment it crosses your mind. Bring your concerns to Me even before expressing them to others. This is what I would like all of My children to do. It is I who can affect the outcome of each circumstance in your lives. Allow me to be your confidant, dearest children of My heart, for I, your Jesus can then help you immediately. Do not hesitate to bring each and every concern to Me, My children. We are friends and as friends we share our sorrows and our joys. I love all of My children, and there are many, many who carry unnecessary burdens and many who make their burdens even heavier by carrying them alone. I am the only One who can literally lift the weight of your cross or can remove it entirely. I assure you, My children there is no one else who has the power to do this, and yet many children complain to others and do not pray to Me for help with these heavy concerns. I am here, My children. I await your call for help. I await your conversation, your inclusion of Me in your lives. Come to Me, My children. Come as you are. I accept you and invite you to grow closer to Me, your Savior, your friend.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, is there anything else You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My daughter. This week will bring additional changes in the world. My plan is unfolding and will continue to do so. When you see changes, know that the Lord God is at work. Trust in Me, for My will to be done. Pray for those who are suffering and especially for those who are away from the church. It is time for those who are outside of My holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church to return. I invite you all to return to My Holy Catholic Church. Return to your family and to the Sacraments, dear children for My Sacraments provide the necessary graces for your journey on earth and to Heaven. I desire all My children to receive the Sacraments, providing they are well disposed and in a state of grace. My children, this is My will. I love you all, and long to lavish graces for healing, mercy and forgiveness upon My children. Live in My light; walk in My light.”

Thank You for Your words of life, Lord Jesus. Thank You for Your assistance with My sister’s illness. Please be with my daughter tomorrow, Lord. I wish I could be with her, Lord to help her. This is another suffering that I offer to You. Please keep her safe from all harm, Lord. Thank You for those who will stand in for me, Lord. Help me to drive safely and protect me as I go out of town. Bless all I will meet on my trip, Jesus. May each meeting with others be an opportunity for grace, for Your light to shine, Jesus. Lord, direct me in each decision and action this week. Help me to live in the light of Your love and to spread Your love to others. Give us the graces to love heroically that You desire for us, Jesus. Lord, thank You and St. Joseph for helping us with the house preparations and for being with my husband as he paints and prepares the house as You have asked. We need Your assistance and are thankful for it.

“My daughter, be of good cheer. I am with you and I go before you. I will be with your whole family. Have no anxiety about the time you are away, but only trust in Me, your Jesus. Recall the words from St. Padre Pio. He is a good spiritual father and will not lead you astray.”

Thank You, Jesus. He is very kind and offers such insight. Thank You for the assistance You allow the saints in Heaven to give us, Lord. It is sometimes difficult to live this earthly life, this pilgrimage, and the assistance allowed from Heaven is so needed and appreciated. Your mercy is endless, Lord.

“My child, My little lamb, I desire all of My children to ask for the intercession of the holy souls living in Heaven, in My Kingdom. This is My will and that of My Father. The saints are empowered in this time of history to be actively at work in the lives of My children on earth, more so now than ever before. This is due to the dire circumstances caused by the degree of sin and disobedience in the lives of My children on earth. Much grace is needed for My children to find their way to Me, and therefore My saints are very active in the lives of My children. Take every advantage of the opportunities provided for grace, My children. Do not waste this time of grace that God the Father allows at this time in history.”

Thank You for reminding us of this, Jesus. Thank You, Father God for this great opportunity and for the many, many graces You provide due to Your love and mercy. Thank You, Heavenly Father for creating us, for loving us into being, for caring for our spiritual and physical needs. Without You, we would not exist. Thank You, Lord that You loved us into existence. Thank You for sending Your Son to us for the salvation of the world. Thank You that You intervene in history in each and every event in our lives, Lord God, Father of All. Turn our cold hearts of stone into warm hearts full of love. Renew us, Father. Create in me a clean heart; Lord put a steadfast spirit in me.

“Thank you, My daughter for your gratitude to My Father. He deserves the gratitude of all people. He is all love, all wisdom, knowledge, truth and mercy.”

Yes, Lord! Jesus, have You anything else You wish to tell me?

“My child, this is all for now. I go with you this week. Be confident in My presence, and in My desire to direct your steps. We walk together and so that is why you are to be at peace, for when I assure you of My love, and My presence, there is nothing to fear, and nothing should disturb you. With each event, remember that I, your Lord and Savior am in charge. All will go according to My will. Rest in this knowledge, regardless of how things may appear, for I am at work in your life, in the life of your family and in the world. Continue on the path I have laid out for you, My children. All will be well. When moments of anxiety tempt you to fear or distrust, take My hand. I will hold your hand and we will continue forward. Nothing can harm you, when you are holding fast to the hand of your Jesus, your Savior. All will be well. Continue to lift your eyes to Heaven. We go forward together. Be not afraid.”

Thank You, Jesus!

“I bless you all in the name of My Father, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love, be mercy to others.”

Amen!

11/23/14, Feast of Christ the King, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus Christ, King of All Nations, of Heaven and earth. I love and adore You. Thank You for allowing us to be here with You today, Lord. My Lord and my God, I praise and adore You. Thank You for being Lord of my life. Thank You for Holy Mass this morning, Jesus my King.

“Thank you for coming to adore Me in My Eucharistic presence, My daughter and My son. I love You and express My gratitude toward you, My servants, My friends.”

Jesus, things are moving so quickly in the world and it is apparent that events will soon escalate. People are beginning to awaken to the signs of economic turbulence and an impending economic crash. Even in the secular media and among those in finance they are discovering the sign posts and speaking out, although the mainstream media is still silent. Lord, all is in Your timing, but it does seem as if our debt and the corrupt markets will cause our U.S. economy to crash very soon. This seems imminent and also close. It seems very unusual that it hasn't occurred already, and yet I believe You are holding this up for us to allow us, Your children time to prepare. Otherwise, the facts of the silver market would not make any sense. I don't understand why evil people would keep silver so low, unless it is somehow for their own gain.

“My daughter, it is true, what you say, but much more extreme. I am allowing more time for My children to prepare. So many are unprepared, though and time is running out. The reason the evil ones suppress the elements I created, is for gain for they do not want the general public to realize the weakness of the current economy. Though some know, the masses do not know. My elements, those I created have intrinsic value and each mineral and metal created has a specific purpose. Man tries to play God by fabricating his own currency, and a currency made of paper, backed by a deceitful group with their ‘promise’ means nothing and is worth nothing. Falsehood, lies, My child are not even worth the paper they are printed on, for paper made from wood pulp is worth more than the words of sinister people influenced by the antichrist. Yes, My child, you have heard correctly. Your Jesus accurately states what is truth, what is fact. Do not doubt yourself, either for the people following and propagating evil are being influenced by satan and his minions, one of whom is the antichrist yet to be revealed. Do not waste precious time, My children trying to determine who this man is, that will attempt to rule the world, for you will know when the time comes and he is revealed. Many, many will not know, but My children who spend time in prayer from the heart will know. Many have come over time that were antichrists, but the time of this generation is the time of the antichrist. Yes, My daughter, you find it difficult indeed when faced with the realization that the antichrist will emerge on the world stage during your lifetime, but I tell you very solemnly indeed that you will see the antichrist.”

Lord, I suspected this but was hoping it would not occur in my lifetime. The events that follow are too terrible to consider.

“Yes, My child. This is true, and yet the important thing to focus on is preparing your soul. This is much more important than anything else you can do. Return to the Sacraments, My children. There is still much work to do. This work begins in your souls. You may also prepare materially, although, being in My family is of the utmost importance, for then one can participate and partake of the Sacraments. I am of course referring to My One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, My body, My family. I love all of My children, even those outside of My church. I desire the best for My children, and so I desire all be members of My body, the church. One day, all will be united in faith dearest children of My heart. One day all will honor Me and recognize Me as the Christ, the Redeemer of mankind, the Savior of the world, God made man. My child, then there will be peace. Then, there will be unity. I tell you this to give you hope. Hope in Me, My children. Trust in Me.”

Lord, thank You for giving us this hope and for informing us that one day, things will be beautiful, due to all people worshipping You, the one true God. This is what we long for, Jesus. Thank You, Lord that You are always with us. Thank You for Your love, Your mercy, Your forgiveness, Your peace.

“My daughter, I wish to tell you I am grateful for instilling the faith and for reading stories of me to little (name withheld). You share your love for Me with him and create a beautiful backdrop and landscape for him so that his mind is lifted to Heaven and his heart swells in the wonder and love of Me, his God, his friend, his Jesus. You appeal to his love of babies and little ones, by showing him pictures of innocence and purity especially as you tell him new and different stories of the Nativity.”

Jesus, these are not true stories, and I was hoping You wouldn't mind, but I thought it would appeal to his sense of creativity. I'm glad You approve.

"I certainly approve, My child for these authors and illustrators were inspired by Me. I gave them these talents to be used in building My Kingdom on earth. Each time My littlest ones are exposed to the purity of the Nativity scene, their hearts open more and more to My grace. Each time one gazes lovingly at a picture of Me depicting My infancy, graces are given. It gives Me joy and My Mother is especially pleased when one of Our children marvel at My Divine infancy. (name withheld) is still too young to express himself adequately especially with regard to his feelings however he is delighted by stories of Me. His little heart sings a tune that all of Heaven hears. Yes, My daughter this is true of all of My little ones who are taught lessons of the love of Me, and are told stories of My Incarnation and My Nativity. It so edifies My Mother and St. Joseph that all of Heaven rejoices. The beautiful, sweet songs from the hearts of innocent children, gazing lovingly and with adoration of their Jesus, ascend to Heaven with the utmost clarity and sweetness. This is very pleasing to Me, My child. I am grateful to the parents, godparents and grandparents who teach their children and grandchildren about the love and mercy of God the Father and God the Son. Sadly, the songs of pure hearts have diminished over the years until they are fewer and fewer. Please spread the message of salvation and love, of My mercy and forgiveness to this barren, cold world. The Gospel message is needed now just as it was in the days of the early church."

Jesus, may I ask You about something?

"Yes, of course My child."

How will I continue working after our house sells? Should I then accept a job in (place withheld) or continue working here? I am wondering about the timing of this since You have said our house will sell in the spring. Is it then that we are to move? If so, should we all move together? If you prefer I wait to know this, I will understand. Just wondering about the timing. You know everything Lord so You know what is on my mind and in my heart.

"My daughter, I will direct you when it is time to give notice at work. You will need to be prepared to move in the spring when your house sells. You will all move together, for I do not desire you be separated, one from another. I desire unity, peace and love. You will move, all of you, as one family unit. Recall that you will be on your 'flight into Egypt.' And you will need the strength that unity with each other will provide. I do not say this will be easy, for that would not be true. You will be in close quarters and at times you will feel temptations to your patience. Remember, I am with you. This time will be relatively short in duration and will serve to provide you with unity and closeness as a family. You have lived apart for a time; you will come together for a time. Make this a time of joy. Do not add to each other's suffering by complaining and offending one another. Think about the Holy Family and our flight into Egypt. My children, this was a most difficult, treacherous journey. It was most uncomfortable for My parents and for Me. Do you think that even once, St. Joseph or My Most Holy and Pure Mother Mary complained or grumbled with one another? No, they did not. They kept their fears, their concerns, their discomfort to themselves and offered each suffering as a sacrifice to God the Father. They offered their cold nights, hot days, their hunger, thirst, fatigue, and even the dust storms they endured to My Father in prayer that in some way this would lessen the suffering I would undergo later. My children, you will not suffer as much as We did during Our flight to Egypt. No, My children, you will not; however, you will endure some suffering as I continue the process of purification even as you begin your new life in My Mother's community. I ask this of you, My children, but I also request that you put aside any thoughts of yourselves as individuals. You must think of the early children of Israel and how they travelled with tents housing more than one generation, as they travelled by caravan across the desert. You will have many more comforts than your ancestors in faith. My children, I do ask much of you, and I assure you this will be for your growth in holiness. Later, you will remember these times as fond memories. Find joy in the simple things My children. Find joy in being together, in praying together, in building a new life together. This new life you are building is for Me, yes. It is for My Mother, yes. It is also for you, dearest children of My heart whom I love beyond your ability to comprehend. You will also be building a new life for your posterity. Generations will tell of the stories of My Mother's communities, of the first members, of those who forged the way. Do everything with joy, peace and unity. This example of unity and joy within your small family will be a holy example to others for many years to come. This is an exercise you must complete for the next phase (the following chapter) of your new life. This new life will bring additional challenges, specific to your family mission. Having grown closer and in spiritual union with one another will lay a firm foundation and prepare you for the wave of priests and children I send you. You must operate with such love, mercy, unity and peace that will lend itself to a sort of precision in carrying out your duties especially during the times when you all will be under a great deal of duress; your community as a whole, as well as your family. I want such unity within your household that nothing can break through to cause discord. Do you understand, My little lamb? This is a very important lesson, My daughter. I cannot over-emphasize this too much, for it is vital to your successful carrying out of the mission God has entrusted to you. I realize your Jesus asks much of you."

Lord, when You put it in light of the Holy Family and Your flight into Egypt, it doesn't seem that it is very much (compared with what You went through). We will be in the lap of luxury compared to camping in the desert, fleeing in the middle of the night with no advance warning to escape Herod's army. Lord, I cannot imagine the depth of suffering that the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and You, baby Jesus endured during this journey.

"Yes, My child. There is no way for you to know unless you have been through such an experience and in the same location, where the elements can be brutal. Yet, I tell you, there was joy. Joy in doing My Father's will; Joy in having the Son of God in their midst; Joy and praise that the Lord God warned Holy St. Joseph in a dream; Sadness for the little ones who were martyred for Me, in My place; Sadness, at leaving with no time to say goodbye to those who became friends and neighbors; No time to thank those who had helped us by bringing gifts of food, clothing and friendship while My parents were in exile in Bethlehem for years after My birth. My children, you have no idea of the suffering My holy parents endured from the time they left Nazareth, their home until the time they were able to return. And yet, never once did either of them complain. Meditate on the trials they endured. Meditate on what their conditions would have been like. Meditate on the joy of dwelling with the Christ Child. Meditate on the great sense of responsibility Mary and Joseph felt as they cared for Me in the most extreme circumstances. Meditate on what it is to be called to follow Me, regardless of where this call leads, regardless of the sacrifices. Only a select, and might I say, a 'handful' of people are called to such extreme sacrifices in life. My children, you are such people. My children of (name withheld) have shown you the way, so you are not alone. Do not fear the early hardships. Do not fear those that will follow as a result of the evil one. Rejoice that you are going where My Mother has prepared a place for you, to dwell under the safety of Her Holy, Motherly Mantle. Be generous, My children. Be hospitable to others in the charity of My Mother Mary. She, who is Most Holy, never rebuked anyone who sincerely sought Me, and wanted to be in My company. Even as a child, others were attracted to Me, since I knew no sin and knew only love and wisdom. My Holy and Pure Mother endured much and yet never turned others away, regardless of the late hour. She, who is the Queen of Heaven and earth, served each guest as if She were serving God the Father. With such grace, charm, hospitality and humility, all were welcomed to visit the Holy Family, the Christ Child. She, who is the Queen of all, was truly the handmaiden of the Lord. Should you, Her children who have sinned, but try to walk in the light of My love, do less than the Mother of God? Surely, you do not have Her purity, Her grace, but all of you can work on having Her humility, for although you are all still on the journey to grow in holiness, none is higher than the Woman of Nazareth, My Mother Mary. Meditate on the life of the Holy Family and pray for the graces from My Mother to begin to live as We lived. It is possible, dearest children of My heart, for I do not ask the impossible. Graces are available from Heaven, but your 'yes' is a pre-requisite. Your open hearts, your willingness to serve others as the Holy Family served are requirements. I love you all and I desire your holiness, for in this way you help your Jesus to bring about My Kingdom. Live as if you were living in Heaven now, My children. You do not yet know what Heaven is like, and yet you know from My Holy Scripture that there are no tears, no pain, no suffering. One can deduce then that there is fullness of joy, fullness of peace, complete love, complete understanding, and consequently the things that annoy and disturb you in this life on earth would not begin to annoy or disturb you in Heaven. Why then, dearest children of the light, do you allow yourselves to be disturbed now? Think of all things, all circumstances in the light of My love and My joy, the joy of Heaven, and resist the temptation to allow your peace to be disturbed. Resist the temptation to fear and to doubt. When fear begins to tempt you, say 'Jesus I trust in You. Lord, I am beginning to feel fear, remove this from me and replace it with confidence in You. Lord, I am beginning to doubt. Jesus, remove this doubt from me and replace it with belief.' This is the way My Apostles learned to pray. Scripture records My Holy Apostle Thomas' words when he prayed, "Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief." This is a very honest and worthy prayer My children, for who among you has the fullness of belief? I daresay if you are breathing and walking about the earth, you are plagued with doubt for such is the human condition. This will be with you until you come to My heavenly Kingdom. Do not be concerned with these temptations, simply give them to Me, ask for Me to give you a holy virtue instead, and graces will rain down upon you. My children, there is nothing too large, and nothing too small to give to Me, your Lord and your God, for I can handle everything. We work together, My beautiful children. You have forgotten your Father is a King, and therefore you are princes and princesses. Is this not true? Your Mother, My Mother is the Queen Mother. You who belong to Me and to My Mother Mary are leaving many graces unused, unrequested, that can assist you tremendously in the spiritual and physical life. Ask and you shall receive. Ask out of love, out of desire to be holy, and all matters of assistance will be granted unto you. I love you, I walk with you, I help carry your burdens, your crosses. In order for Me to help you, you must first pick up your cross. Be love, be light, be living witnesses to a life lived in joy, for Christ. In this way, others will be attracted to you, for in you, they will see Me. I ask you to become like Me in all things that are qualities I possessed during My life on earth. Read the Gospels, My children, study, meditate on My life, My qualities, My example, and model your lives after Me. In this way, you will be Christ bearers."

Thank You for Your words of life, Jesus. Thank You for showing us the beauty, the purity of life, lived as the Holy Family. Give us graces for love and holiness so that we may be like the Holy Family to those we encounter. Help us to be Your instruments, Lord. Help our hearts to become pure and simple like small children's hearts are so that our hearts will make beautiful melodies, and our prayers will reach Heaven as the music of love. Lord, Your life, Your love, Your peace, Your strength set such an example for all mankind. May we set an example for our small corner of the world, as You desire, as You will. 'Oh, my beloved, who is also my God, make my heart a flame of pure love for Thee.' Jesus, we are so small and have been immersed in a secular culture that promotes everything other than virtue, we are surrounded by a culture of death and so much that is insidiously evil surrounds us via the media, those we encounter at work and in the outer world. There is also, much beauty. You created a beautiful world, and I have met wonderful godly people. However, Lord there is so much that has impacted our minds, our hearts and our souls, that is in need of purification. Things which we are not even aware of, such as ways of thinking, not trusting people, even our neighbors, as generations past could. Lord, cleanse us of all iniquity, of all negative ways of thinking. Enlighten us with Your truth, Your goodness, Your beauty, wisdom and majesty. Create our hearts anew, Lord God so that we live new lives; Lives of holiness, love, peace and unity. Give us courage and strength to withstand the evil and sins of the world; to resist temptation, so that we are Your little beacons of light. Lord, remove our fears so that we do not hide Your light under a bushel basket, but live with joy, courage, strength and unity. Help us to love, to show charity, to be hospitable to strangers, so that we model the beautiful virtues of our Holy, Blessed Mother. Never leave us, sweet Jesus and do not allow us to falter in our faith. Never allow me to abandon You, Jesus for I want to be with You and take firm hold of Your hand, never letting go of You, my Savior. I love You, my sweet Jesus. I thank You for the blessing of this Catholic faith, of this beautiful faith filled family in which I was born, Lord. Please help my sister who is suffering so. I do not know what it is that afflicts her, Lord, but You know and You have the power to heal her and bind her wounds. I entrust her to Your loving arms and ask You to do Your holy will in her, Jesus. Lord Jesus, I trust in You. Lord, help us, her brothers and sisters to minister to her in the way only You know is needed. We do not know what she needs, Lord, but You do. Help us to meet her needs, known only to You, Jesus. Work through us, Lord and give us Your Holy Wisdom. I praise You and I adore You, my Lord and my King. Thank You, for my little family, Lord. Bless those outside of Your church. Blessed Mother, take their hands and lead them to Your Son, Jesus as only You know how to do. Thank You, Lord for everything and most especially for the gift of salvation and the gift of Your presence in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You, Lord. May my life be a witness to Your love.

“My daughter, My little one, how I love You. Your heart is full of passion for your Jesus and for My will. Continue on the path I have laid out for you, My child, for I am with you. I go before you and though the way is unknown to you, it is known to Me. All will be well. Keep your eyes on Me. I love you all, and I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. I will be with you this week as you face yet another change. I prepare you now, to deal with many changes so that later it will be easier to deal with the even greater changes coming. The entire world will experience major change, and I prepare My Mother’s community members now for what is to come later. Trust in Me. All will be well, for all is within My Father’s will and His plan for His children. Go in My peace and walk with Me and My Mother. You are in Her capable hands.”

Thank You, Jesus. Thank You, dearest Mother. I love You.

“And I love you.”

November 16, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. It’s so very good to be here with You, my Lord and my God. I love You. Thank You for Your presence with us, and for never leaving us, Jesus.

“Hello, My daughter. Thank you for coming to visit with me in My Eucharistic presence.”

Lord, please help my daughter to get well, and bless my husband for staying home with our grandson so that I could come to visit You in the Blessed Sacrament. I know he wants to be here with You, also. He sacrificed his visit, so that I could come. Thank You, Lord for my husband, for his faith, and his love.

“You are welcome, My child. I do bless your family. Your daughter became ill due to the stress she has been under and the conflicting situation she is in at work. I have allowed this time for her to rest in Me. I know of your husband’s sacrifice and I, too am grateful. We have much to discuss today, do we not?”

Yes, Lord, if You say so, Jesus, it is so.

“My child, what is it that worries you?”

Lord, I read what You told my friend and I am concerned about my children and grandchildren. I am concerned about our lack of ability to stay warm during the upcoming outages. I ask You to take care of us, Jesus and to provide for all who are unable to secure heat, especially little children and the elderly who are so vulnerable. Lord, I was also thinking of my daughter who is away from the church. I trust You and recall that You said ‘all would be well.’ Please bring her swiftly back to You, Jesus. Blessed Mother, please take her hand and bring her to Your Son, Jesus.

“My child, do you not think that I, Your Jesus will care for you?”

Yes, Jesus. I know You will. Still, that doesn’t mean it won’t be miserable (conditions). I am confident that You hold every one of Your children in Your loving arms, no matter what occurs. Thank You that You love us, Lord Jesus.

“My child, trust in Me, Your Savior. All is under control. What is to come, is what is needed to bring My children back to Me. I want My children safely in the care of My Holy and Pure Mother. My desire is for all of My children to accept the love I have for them, and which I freely give. Thank you, My children who do love Me, and follow Me.”

Lord, please give consolations and peace to the man who just left Adoration. He seems angry and disturbed. Give him Your peace, Lord. Jesus, my husband mentioned being concerned about the high cost of building. I know he trusts You with the solution, and yet the time to begin is near and we will need Your guidance with all of the decisions facing us. Lord, is there something we need to be doing at this point, different than what we are doing?

Continue on the path I have laid out for you. Prepare the house for the sale and finalize what is needed to begin building. I do not provide every answer ahead of when the direction is needed, My daughter. It is enough for you to trust in Your Jesus and walk by faith. I will provide for My children. I understand My son’s need to provide everything for his family, but in this case he is to look to Me to be the provider for I will give what is needed when the time comes to proceed, for each step as it is needed, and in My time. My children, trust is what is required.”

Lord, it is difficult to concentrate on You and You alone with the talking going on. I am very sorry for my inability to give You my full attention. Please inspire others to be focused on You, also. You deserve our undivided attention, Lord. I love You!

“My child, I see the current situation and I understand. I overlook these tendencies in My children who are aging in their earthly bodies. So much is changing for them in their physical bodies, conditions and in the world around them. They are wise in their old age and they see the signs of the times. They are more vocal at this point in their lives and they are very concerned. I am grateful for their faithfulness in coming to adore Me. I accept each child as they are, and especially delight in those who are at an age where it is difficult to get around, and still they make a sacrifice due to their physical discomfort and inability to get around independently, and come to see Me.”

Jesus, have You anything You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My daughter. Put aside your fears, your anxieties and serve Me in each moment. Do not worry about what tomorrow will bring. Prepare as I have asked and continue on, My child. It is not for you to know the day or the hour that Your Jesus will come again. It is also not for you to know when the coming calamities will strike. What I ask of you and all of My children, is to live My Gospel message. Love others. Serve Me by loving your neighbor. Prepare, yes. Worry, no. To worry is to distrust Me, Your Jesus. Be in My Divine Will. Dwell in My Sacred Heart, for then, no matter what occurs, you will be safely united to Me. My children of the light, it is past time to awaken and return to the Sacraments. You must clothe yourselves in holiness and righteousness and it is not possible to do so, independent of the Sacraments. Return, My children of light while there is still access to My holy priest sons.”

Thank You, Lord. Jesus, help us to do exactly as You say, for all that You direct us, is for our own good. Lord, please be with us in the workplace, as there is so much persecution going on now for those who love and follow You. I think this is just the beginning, Jesus. We need Your guidance and protection.

“It is as you say, My child. It did not have to be this way, but man’s disregard for My Father and Me has caused this clash with evil. My Mother has been trying to effect change in the hearts of Her children, but small is the number of people who listen to Her.”

Lord, will more people turn to Her when conditions grow worse in the world?

“Yes, My daughter, but not as many as you would imagine. So many of My children have hearts of stone and ice. Instead of returning to Me and begging for mercy, many will blame Me for their circumstances. Some will convert and return to Me. It is for these children that I allow the calamities, for they will bring about conversions. Many will not convert, though. Pray for My children who are far from Me. Pray that the coming trials and difficulties will soften hearts. I urge the children who follow Me to pray for your brothers and sisters. Be merciful. Be love. Share what you have with those who come to you. Those who have prepared and who have stored food, share with those who have not. In this way, more will continue to convert, for they will be amazed at your love. They will learn firsthand, of My love, by witnessing My love through you. Regardless of what occurs around you, you are still expected to be light and to be love to others. In some ways, you will have a greater opportunity to love heroically than the holy saints who have come before you did. In this time of darkness, the light of My love shines as a beacon of hope to others and gives light to their path. Without My light, there is darkness, fear and confusion. Bring the light of My love to those around you. Pray during times of distress, so that I can flood you with My peace and My love. My children are to be peaceful even in the midst of turmoil. This peaceful demeanor, that I desire for all of My children, will attract those who are distressed. You will then provide your calm, which comes from My Holy Spirit, your prayerful disposition to them, as a port in the storms of life. My children of light, this is nothing new for you, and yet it will not be easy to remember when the times of great trials are upon you. You must remember this now and put this spiritual practice into your life now. Come to Me frequently throughout the day, in moments of silence and ask Me to give you My peace, My calm, My clarity. Turn your gaze toward Heaven often throughout each day. Each time you do so, graces are provided to you. I encourage each one of My children to remain close to Me in this way, so that your hearts and minds are united with me and all of Heaven. We will direct you, Children of the Renewal. Be aware that these simple instructions are of the utmost importance to you now and for your futures. I am with you, My children in a special way during this time of disobedience. The world and it's people are very far from God, and evil abounds as a result. I cry out to My children and My pleas fall on deaf ears, even for those who still love Me, but give their attention to worldly pursuits.

My children, do you not see that the evil one lurks about you, and his minions cause distractions and barriers that you blindly disregard? Do you not see how easily distracted all of My children have become, such that your focus on Me has been diverted? Do not look to government and environmental policies and programs to save you, for that is the deception of the evil one who is My adversary and yours. You must look to God, for your salvation. It is not too late for many of My children to turn back to Me. My children, do not wait until you take your last breath to return to Me, for you do not do well to live your lives recklessly, waiting until the last possible time to repent. Do you have this much power over your lives to know when your last breath will be? Do you have this much knowledge? No, of course you do not. Then, do not put off your conversion for one more moment. Open your hearts to Me, your Jesus for I love you. I died to save you. The evil one does not have the ability to save your soul and wants the opposite, My children. He wants you in hell with him. His reason for this is to seek a sick form of satisfaction in hurting Me. You see, he cannot harm Me, for I am God. The only revenge he can take against Me and against My Most Holy and Pure Mother Mary is to hurt Our children. Do not be deceived by his lies, his false promises. He has no intention of rewarding you with anything unless he knows he can use you for a short time to cooperate with his evil plans. These plans for evil will be short lived My children. Do not throw away your eternal inheritance for a brief moment of earthly power. This is foolish, My children. Listen to My Most Holy Mother who pleads with you. She also pleads with Me and with My Father and yours to continue to allow Her to visit the earth pleading with Her children. Because of Her goodness, Her love, Her purity, Her Immaculate Heart, My Father continues to allow Her to visit the earth dispensing graces, love and guidance. As long as there are continued conversions, My Mother will be allowed to come to Her children. You do not know when the time for Her supernatural visits at Medjugorje will come to an end, My children. Do not squander this time of grace by ignoring Her. The world would have ceased to exist long ago were it not for My Holy Mother Mary's pleadings and Her prayers for you. My Mother intercedes before God in Heaven to spare the worldly destruction the evil one is planning. My children, My Mother intercedes for each of you by name before the throne of God. Do you understand what I am saying? Your name is on My Mother's lips as she speaks to God the Father. Yes, My child, this means you. Each person is brought before the throne of the Almighty, who was and is and is to come by My Mother and your Mother. Do you not see the gratitude with which you should approach My Mother Mary? Because of Her, God the Father has provided the gift of Medjugorje, so great is Her love. She is one of you in every way except sin, for She is entirely and only human. She is the new Eve. Listen to Her, for she brought Me, your Savior into the world. Love Her, My children. If you love Me, you will love and respect My Mother. Children of this era of disobedience, listen to your Mother. If you do not listen, there will come a time, soon, of great lamenting and the times of great trials will come crashing in. Children, think of the great force and pressure of a wall that holds back a wall of water. The wall holds firm and fast for it has been built on a firm foundation with excellent material and engineering. Many people volunteered their time and skills to erect this wall to preserve those living within the wall from flooding. This is like My Mother Mary, who holds back the force of evil. Like a wall that does not prevent the rain from occurring, My Mother does not prevent evil, but she protects Her children, dwelling beneath Her mantle from the full force of evil by holding it away from Her children. However, when the wall is removed, either through the negligence of those that are to care for the stability of the wall, or because the force of the water becomes stronger than the wall can withstand, the water rushes in. The sheer force of the water is beyond the inhabitants expectations, for they were protected while the wall was intact. They went about their lives oblivious to the pressure of the water that had been building over time, for they had become complacent and negligent in examining the condition of the wall, meanwhile the pressure was increasing over time. When the wall was compromised and weakened, the water came forth with horrifying power. Destruction ensued and many lives lost. My children, if God the Father ceased to allow My Mother to appear on the earth, such destruction would visit My children that many lives would be lost and the earthly destruction beyond anything experienced since World War II. This is a very tenuous time, My children. Do not continue to turn a deaf ear to the very one who is holding back the tide of evil. My Mother's wisdom is being shared with you as the last invitation to return to the heart of God. Why, oh why, My lost children do you choose darkness over light, evil over goodness, hatred over love? You were created for goodness, for love. Quiet your hearts and minds and reflect on this. Seek Me, and you will find Me and your joy will be complete. I desire your safety. I desire your love. Allow yourselves to be loved. Allow Me to forgive you, My lost little ones. Do not listen to My adversary and yours when he tells you, you do not deserve forgiveness. Do not listen to him when he tells you lies and says that you are not worthy of love. My children, all who were given the gift of life, even those whose lives were taken before given the opportunity to be born, I tell you this! You were created for love. You were created for Heaven. Do not listen to the evil one who tricks you, for I am truth. I am life. I am love. I love you!"

Jesus, thank You that You love us so much that You plead with us. You not only became man to take upon You, the sins of the world, our sins; You not only died for our sins so that we could live with You in Heaven, but You continue to reach out to us, to love us, to plead with us when we reject You. You humble Yourself by taking the form of bread and wait for us in all of the tabernacles in the world. Lord, You are all life, all love, truth, peace and mercy. Thank You, Lord that You do not give up on us, Your wayward children. Give us this kind of love, Jesus that pursues us until we turn around and acknowledge You, the beloved who chases us. Thank You, my Lord and my God for Your mercy, Your kindness and Your love. Thank You that You walk with us as we go about our day. Praise You, Lord God who created the universe and everything living, for caring about each and every person, no matter what our state in life. Thank You for creating us, Lord. I love You, my Lord and my God. I am sorry for my sins and for the many times I have offended You. Help me to love You even more. Help me to desire pleasing You, over everything else.

"My child. I love you also. Your Jesus walks with you, as you say, as I do with each one of My children. I love you and I will never abandon you. Do not fear the coming trials, for My grace will sustain and protect you. Continue to walk with Me and to listen to My Mother. Family prayer time is a must, now and I urge you to protect this sacred time with Me. This is an urgent request for all of My children. Come under the mantle of protection that My Holy Mother Mary extends over you when you pray faithfully every day. By praying with your children, you enfold them in My Mother's mantle as well. For those of you who do not have families under your roof, pray anyway. Bring your family under My Mother's mantle in a spiritual way, if doing so physically is not possible. Be faithful and devoted to a routine and regular time of prayer for in this way you are marked with My sign, My blessing and you will be spared from harm. I love you, My children. Put Me in the first place in your lives so that all will be well.”

That is all for now, My child. Your Jesus thanks you and your family for your faithful friendship and devotion to Me and to My Holy Mother, Mary. Continue on the path I have laid out for you, for I your Jesus have important work for you and your family. Your family’s mission is My Mother’s mission and your part is a small, though important part of Her mission. Continue on the path to Her community. I love you and I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love to others. Be prayer for others. Bring My mercy to others. I am depending on you and all of My children of light.”

Thank You, Jesus. I love You. Help us to do Your holy will.

“I love you, also, My children. All will be well. Follow Me.”

Yes, Jesus.

November 8, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, dearest Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore, praise and thank You for allowing us to be here with You today. Thank You for Your presence in all of the tabernacles in the world. Thank You that You wait here for us, Jesus. Lord, thank You for the great gift You have given me in (name withheld). It is wonderful, after all these years to be reunited and to share in our devotion and love of Your Mother and our Catholic faith. How amazing to find out today after so many years, that she is from my mother and grandmother’s home town. It was such a nice gift! Your plan is perfect, Lord and You never cease to delight me. Thank You, Jesus, my Lord and my God.

“You are welcome, My child. It pleases me when My children realize My hand in the events of their lives. Thank you for coming to visit Me today, My daughter and My son. I am very pleased when My children take time out of their busy schedules to spend time with Me. I have many, many graces available for those who spend time in Adoration. Special graces are available.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, I bring many prayer intentions to You today and lift up so many who are sick, those suffering from cancer, those struggling with addictions and those who do not know You, Lord. Please heal Your people, Jesus. Grant us, physical, spiritual and mental healing. I pray especially for my grandchildren who have not been baptized and for those in my family who are away from the church. Bring them back to You, Jesus. Lord, I also lift up to You the people suffering all over the world from serious illness, including the people who have Ebola. Please give them consolations, Lord during their suffering. Help them to know You are with them and love them. They must feel so very alone especially with the isolation and precautions taken to contain this virus. Jesus, we are concerned this will be spread in the U.S. even though we know how to contain it. There seems to be an evil plan afoot to spread this virus intentionally, Lord as a means of population “control” which is sinister. Lord, we need conversion of our hearts and we need You, Jesus. Help us, Lord.

“My daughter, what you say is correct. The evil being planned is beyond your belief and population control is putting this mildly. The adversary wants to eliminate all people. He is using the term population control as if the population needed to be controlled. It does not need to be controlled. There is room on the earth for every person God wills to create. There is plenty of room, My children. Do not listen to evil lies that My adversary uses to advance his plan of death. It is ridiculous to think that God didn't create a world that was large enough to contain all people He has planned from the beginning of time."

That is ridiculous, Lord.

"My daughter, there will be many lives lost as a result of the plan of the evil one and those who cooperate with him. In addition to rebuilding My church, My children will also need to repopulate the world. There will also be many orphans who will be in need of loving families to care for them and due to the economic collapse, people will not be willing to take them into their homes for fear of not having enough food. I tell you, My children, you are expected to take them in even if you have nothing. I will provide for your needs, My children. You are to live according to My Holy Gospels, and love your neighbor. It is through the children, that I will rebuild My world. There are not enough children due to the abortions and selfishness of married couples,. You will understand one day why we need more children. Walk by faith My children, not by sight."

Thank You, Jesus. I love Your little children and we will be glad to take in whomever You decide.

"Thank you, My daughter. This will be an important part of the mission, as we have discussed. There are too few people willing to take in My little lost lambs who will be so very frightened by the violence all around them. They will be in shock and difficult to reach, My children. You must be love to them. Shelter and protect them and tell them again and again that they are safe. Tell them as many times and over as many months as needed until they begin to believe you. It will take much time, love and energy, My children to care for My little lambs, so fragile will they be after what they will have witnessed. Have no fear, My children, for I and My Mother will guide you in what to say and in what to do. Remember when the time comes, to pray for guidance at every moment, for no one will know how to care for them but Me and My Holy Mother. No one do not listen to the advice of some who will want to use techniques of psychotherapy, for that will not help them in the state they will be in when coming to you."

Lord, I can't begin to imagine the suffering and woundedness of their little hearts. I know we will not be able to handle this without You. We are not trained in this sort of thing, but I suppose it wouldn't matter if we were, since I think there will be violence of a scale never seen in our country.

"Sadly yes, My child. During one of your battles of history there was much death, at Gettysburg. This was also the evil one's plan. He wanted to pull your country apart, since my Mother has influenced much of your country's progression from wilderness to the Union. Peace and unity is of Me, My daughter. Destruction, disunity, death is of My adversary and yours. Do not despair, My children of light for this dark period in the world and in your country will come to a close and I will renew the face of the earth. My child, be open to what I am saying. Do not be hesitant to write My words, for it will be helpful later to those who endure to know that this evil plan that has been brewing for decades, will not be allowed to go too far."

It sounds as if it will go too far, Jesus for many, many lives will be lost.

"Yes, My little lamb. It is as you say; however, Your Jesus will not allow the evil one's plans to advance in their entirety, for I, the Lord God, will not allow My creation to be annihilated. "

Thank You, Lord.

“Daughter, you have nothing to fear. I walk with you at each moment of your life and when you are afraid, I hold your hand. When you cannot go on, due to being tired or too beaten down by the world, I carry you.”

Thank You, Jesus. I love You. I trust in You and I depend on You, Lord.

“Thank you, My child.”

Jesus, please forgive me of my sins. This week was difficult but I can see there is an easing to a small degree. Thank You, Lord. Please protect me from my enemies, Jesus.

“I am protecting you, My daughter. I am with you throughout the day and I defend you as needed. No one will harm you, My little one.”

Thank You, Lord. Lord, will you forgive my sins?

“Of course I will, My child. All is forgiven. Go to My Sacrament when you are able to receive the special graces given in Confession. All is forgiven, though and you may rest in this. Still, I ask that you and all of My children frequent My Sacraments. Many hours of Confession time are unused as My children leave My holy priest sons waiting for them. This is the reason My sons do not offer more opportunities for they do not wish to sit there alone, waiting for My flock to come. This is not what I would like, My child, for My priest sons need to offer much more time for Confession. This should be “open” time, not time that is scheduled as an appointment. My children do not need an appointment with Me to forgive sins. I am waiting with open arms and this is how I desire My holy priest sons to be. I assure you, My sons who stand in for Me, when you provide more time for My children to go to Confession, they will come. If at first they do not, that is also My plan, for I desire to sit with you in the silence of your heart where we can be love to one another. I will fill you with My love, My guidance, My direction and you will be renewed. This time of prayer and silence is needed by you, My sons for your lives are too hectic. I desire you to be more open with your schedules to be available to your flock and mine. In this way, you are approachable by those most in need. Dearest sons of My heart, the world has become far too busy and people are starving for your time. Walk with My children. Be present to them. Give them more opportunities to spend time in the confessional where much healing and peace is given. As you make this time available, over time more will come, and more will be freed from their sins and the obstacles they have erected in their souls will be removed. In this way, I can flood their souls with light, with grace, with the peace of Heaven. Lives will be changed, My sons and in this way, the world will change. Dear sons of My heart, we have much important work to do. Work of healing, work of new life. My sons, do you not see that the most important work of your vocations is in the confessional, and at the altar. This should have precedence over everything else you do as My priest sons. Yes, My sons this is as I say. Come, let us begin this important work together for you cannot do this without me and I have decided, long ago that I did not want to do this important work of salvation without you! Do you see? Your Jesus has decided to ‘need’ you and We do this work together. Think of this. There is no more important work in the world for you. I implore you to offer more opportunities and for a longer duration for My children to drink from the well of forgiveness. What is the worst that can happen My sons? You will sit there alone, with Your Jesus? Would that be so bad? No, it would not. But even if that occurs you will then stand before Me with open arms and an open heart, without regrets for you were available to your flock and you did what I asked. I will be pleased with your faithful service and I will offer the best to you, My dearest sons. You will see, however, this, the worst thing, sitting alone, will not occur, for My children long to go to Confession. For those who do not, you must speak of the beauty of My forgiveness. Speak of the love which overflows from My merciful heart. Tell them, they have nothing to fear. Encourage them, love them and make time for them. This is the remedy for the dark times in which you live. Confession, Holy Mass and Adoration. Let us begin, dear sons of My Sacred Heart. Let us begin.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord who will read these words? I do not understand how this can be spread to your holy priest sons, who I am fairly certain are not reading these lengthy messages.

“My child, do not be concerned that Your Jesus cannot accomplish this, for I can. Remember, it only takes a few holy souls to change the world. I began with 12, did I not?”

Yes, Lord That is a very good point! Of course, I know You can do all things, Jesus. I do not underestimate You, but wonder what You would like me to do. Is this journaling making a difference in the hearts of Your people?

“Yes, My child. It is. Remember the cave parable that My Mother told you?”

Yes, Lord, I remember.

“One light shines brightly in utter darkness, even one match.”

Thank You, Lord for reminding me of this. Jesus, I am so glad to see several people here in Adoration. I wasn't sure if this occurred on days other than Sunday. Apparently, it does and I am very pleased.

“Yes, My child. Monsignor is responsible for an increase in the attendance of Adoring me in this small chapel. He teaches his flock in the way I desire and with his authority, people listen. All of My holy priest sons can do the same, and I desire they do so. People will listen to them when they teach the truths of My Church.”

Thank You, Lord. I love You. You always provide for us, Your children. Please provide more priests, Jesus. We desperately need them, Lord.

“My daughter, many, many are called to the priesthood. Sadly, most do not hear the gentle invitation of Mine, for their lives are filled with materialism and with too much noise. There is too much focus on entertainment and on making money in this current age, then on prayer, the Sacraments, time together as a family. This is the reason that many who are called are unaware and are unprepared for My call. There is much work to be done in families, to make room for My children to spend more time with me and to begin to recognize My voice, and My direction. Children of the Renewal, you must stand against the currents of this evil culture. Change the life of your family by simplifying. Have family meals together and ask your children about their day. Ask them what they think about the issues they present to you. Give them your full attention. Give them your love. Give them your affection and let them know that they are important to you and to Me. When you begin to spend quiet time at home and provide structure, love and affection, you will see changes in them. You will see them grow in confidence and security. It will be easier for them to withstand pressure from their peers and society for they will know they already ‘fit in’ with the most important people in their lives, you. They will learn about My love for them when they receive love from you. Teach them about My unconditional love and mercy. Then show this to them in the way you interact with them and with others. Be kind to others even in your conversations at home. What am I saying, children? I am saying, do not gossip and belittle your neighbors in the privacy of your homes where your children learn to do the same. You lose respect in their eyes, also in addition to giving them sinful examples. Be loving and kind at all times. Yes, you must also be firm on occasion, but this will only be needed on occasion when they experience your love. My children, focus on raising holy children who will help their Jesus to change the world. Yes, My children, together we will change the world. It will be darker before there is a large change, but we must reach out to others for the sake of their souls and their destiny. I desire your time on earth to be spent loving one another. Does this sound like 'fluff' My children who have skeptical hearts? If it is so easy, allow Me to ask you why you are having such difficulty loving one another? My children, to love is to sacrifice, to work for another. To love is pure joy and yet it is also challenging. Anyone working on this will tell you it is not easy. Therefore, it is not 'fluff.' Do not believe that those who love are weak, for this is not true. Indeed, it is the opposite. Those who love have the most incredible strength, for those who love have a heart filled with My Holy Spirit."

Thank You, Lord for all that you teach and share with us. Praise You, Lord for Your words of life and Your lessons of love.

"You are welcome, My daughter. Thank you for writing My words. You are My faithful and devoted friend. You are My little secretary. Do not think that is a demeaning job, little one. I am giving you a high compliment."

Yes, Lord. Thank You. I am happy to be Your secretary for to write Your words is a privilege, an honor. You are the eternal, living Word!

"Yes, My daughter. You are writing words from Me that will bring life to others, balm for their wounds and guidance in following Me and living a life of faith. My words have power. Power to heal, to reconcile, to live, to see, to learn and to love. Thank you that you are committed to Me. Thank you for your faithful commitment to Adoration. I am grateful to My son, your husband, and to you, My little sunshine for coming on a regular basis and for spending as much time as I ask. I love you and I am grateful to you, My child."

Jesus, that still seems difficult to understand, but I accept that You are pleased. I thank You for my life, Jesus. Thank You for every breath You have allowed me to take, and enabled me to take. I am grateful for Your loving presence in my life, for my family and the countless blessings You give me each and every day. I love You, my Jesus.

"And I love you, My daughter. All of Heaven prays for you and is there, waiting for your request for graces. Those in Heaven are very active and involved in the life of the church militant. I remind My children reading these messages to ask My Holy Mother for graces every day. She will give you the graces needed for the work and prayer of the day. My children, living in this world, are in need of the graces, especially so now. Your brothers and sisters, the saints, have toiled on earth for Me. Many lost their lives for Me. Their heroic love for Me stored up many graces in Heaven for just this time in history, My children of light. Do not forget to request their assistance, for they have travelled the path of faith and they faced many of the same struggles as you face. Do not allow the bountiful graces they sacrificed much for, to be unused and unrequested. Allow them to share these with you. This is the way they are able to assist you and be participants in helping you to 'fight the good fight.' Yes, My children, there are stores and stores of graces waiting to be disseminated to you. The saints take great pains to find just the ones needed for you and after showing them to Me, shower them upon you. You are not alone, My children for you have a very large family in Heaven. We are all your family, so never listen to the lies of the evil one who wants you to believe you are all alone. This is completely false. Not only is your family (all of us) in Heaven waiting for you, but you also have an angel guardian who loves and protects you your entire life. This is one who does everything in their power to guide you to Heaven. Their only limitation is your free will, which they can never infringe upon. Most of My children now have several angels around them, for the times are most desperate indeed. All of these provisions, and many more you will discover later, have been made for you because of My Father's great love for you. Rejoice in this love, My children. Remain in this love and all will be well. That is all, My child for it is time to close. There is much more to discuss with you, but for now you must go. I will be waiting for you, My little lamb, in the Sacrament of the Altar this evening. I look forward to this time with you and with all who receive Me worthily in Holy Communion."

Thank You, Jesus. I am never worthy to receive You, but I do know what You mean. I love You. I hope we can be here with You tomorrow, Jesus.

"All will be well, My child. Remain in My love. I bless you in My Father's name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace to be love to others."

Thank You, my Lord and my God. I love You.

"And I love You."
