

October 12, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus present in the most Blessed Sacrament. It is so good to be here with You, Lord. I love and adore You, Lord God of all. Thank You that we are with You today.

“Hello, My daughter. Thank you for your presence here.”

Thank You for the Holy Mass this morning and for the beautiful music of the children’s choir. They sang with such exuberance and joy, Lord. It was very uplifting and inspiring. I couldn’t help but think how much my mother and grandmother would have enjoyed their singing and the playing of (name withheld). He is very talented, Lord. Thank You for the gift of music, Jesus. The readings were so beautiful, also about the banquet and it lifted my heart and my mind to Heaven where we will live in Your Kingdom one day, Lord. I love You and praise You that You prepare a banquet for us each and every time Mass is celebrated. Thank You for Your sacrifice, Jesus. Thank You that You gave us Your body, blood, soul and divinity when You instituted the Holy Eucharist. What a great gift to the world. Thank you, Jesus!

Jesus, last week was grueling in so many ways. Please help me this week, and also my daughter. Send us Your peace, Lord. I don’t want to ask You to lift this burden from me, Lord since You said the purpose is to save souls, but would You help carry this with me? If You don’t, I doubt I can make it through another week like the last two. I am glad to do what I can, though Lord, but I am weak and not so good at enduring persecution. I recognize I need to improve in this area of my life, but the only way to improve upon something is to practice. That isn’t something I care to do in this case, Lord. Be that as it may, it is nothing compared with what others go through. Please help me, Jesus and if it is Your will, allow this time of suffering to pass soon. If not, give me additional graces to carry this cross. Jesus have You anything to say to me today?

“Yes, My child. I have much to say and much for us to discuss. You have suffered, My little one. I am aware of each trial and each cross you carry. I am with you. I see that this period of suffering weighs heavily upon you, and that you are unable to find refuge or a resting place to put down this burden, even for a few minutes. This can be exhausting, My little one.”

Jesus, I have found a place of respite, though if only for a few seconds; in prayer and in contemplation. Mass is also very helpful and I find solace there.

“Yes, My child but even at Mass there are many distractions for you, is that not true?”

Yes, Lord. There are some, I agree. It may be that I am unable to quiet my thoughts as well as I usually do, because of the stress.

“My child, recall the moment you closed your eyes just before exiting your car in the parking lot and you saw an image of My Father holding you. Do you recall how you felt at this moment?”

Oh, yes, Lord. I do. There was a deep sense of peace and abandonment to God the Father. I asked Him to carry me everywhere I needed to go that day and I think I said something like; if You don’t, Father I will be unable to take a single step. I won’t be able to get out of this car, Lord if you don’t agree to carry me. I cannot do this, without You, Father.

“What did He say about that, My little lamb?”

That He would carry me each and every step of the way. He would not only carry me, but also provide for and protect me. Peace flooded my soul, Lord and I felt that I had enough energy to get out of the car and walk into the building. I couldn't allow myself to consider the entire day and the very heavy work load, deadlines and issues, but it was looming ahead. Instead, to survive, I could only think about walking through the parking lot into the building. Somehow, I knew I could get through the day with God the Father carrying me in His arms.

"Yes, My child. This is how you are to approach each and every day of life. Ask My Father, your Father, to carry you. Bring every burden, anxiety and concern to Me and lay it at the foot of My Holy Cross. I am here for you and I accept this most difficult time of suffering from you, My child for the good of other souls. I, Your Jesus thank you for agreeing to bear this a little while longer. Remember, My little lamb, I do not ask you to do this alone. I have sent other souls to pray for you and to offer works of kindness."

Yes, You have, Lord. I am very grateful for my brothers and sisters that have given me words of encouragement, offered prayers for me, shown me kindness, given their hugs to me. I am so very blessed by You, Lord. Thank You for Your love and mercy. Now, I see how important it is to give others encouragement and to offer a smile or some other act of kindness. It means so much when I am suffering, Lord. Thank You for showing me this.

"My child, I am pleased you have realized this important lesson. You, My daughter have been given the gift of being encouraging to others. You offer smiles and a listening ear on a regular basis. Do not be hesitant, My daughter in writing these words for I want all of My children to understand the importance of being present to others. My little lamb, just now as you were patiently listening to My daughter (name withheld) as she shared her concerns and burdens with you, you helped lighten her load. She suffers much due to her loss of independence. This is a heavy cross for one who has been very independent her entire adult life. You see, My daughter, your patience, your kindness, your empathy has given her the blessing of knowing there is someone who cares, someone who sees her as a person, one who shares in her humanity. My child, there are many, many people who suffer from loneliness, discouragement and isolation. Even those you least expect are in such isolation they feel there is nothing much to live for, and though they put up a good front to others, deep down have a sense of hopelessness. Suicide is increasing in the world and this is a very grave problem. Be light, love and mercy to others. My child, the gifts of awareness, sensitivity, encouragement, hospitality are very important and needed in the world during this period of time. This is a most desperate time in history, for many, many souls are walking in darkness. I have allowed you to feel this darkness, My child. I have only permitted this state within your soul for your own growth, My little one. I have never left you. In fact, I am closer to you now than ever, though it feels as though I am far from you. Your trust in Me has not wavered and I assure you this period of suffering will be ending soon. Remain in this state for awhile, My darling and soon Your Jesus will lift the dark clouds you feel surround you. Will you do this for your Jesus, My daughter? I will remain with you, holding your hand, walking at your pace, My daughter. You have nothing to fear with me as your side."

I give you my yes, Jesus. I will do this for you, but I count on You to be with me at every single moment. Lord, please keep the dreams I've been having at night away from me. I do not have any peace even during my sleep, Lord. Please allow me the peaceful sleep I am accustomed to, Lord, even if the days do not change. It will be tolerable, Lord if I could just get some sleep.

"Yes, My child. I will protect you from the tempters while you sleep at night. That I will do. Thank you, My little one for being courageous for Me. I am grateful to you and to all of My children of the renewal who carry their crosses willingly. There are many souls benefitting from your sacrifices and those of My children of light. I assure you, My little lamb, the communities are benefitting and receiving graces from the many sacrifices and crosses being offered.”

Thank You, Lord that our suffering can have meaning and purpose. I love You, Lord. Thank You for measuring and weighing each cross to ensure it is not too heavy for your children. Thank You, Jesus that You ease the burdens of our crosses. Thank You for my husband and my family who pray for me. Please send people to encourage and pray for my daughter, Lord as she endures so much difficulty within her workplace, also. Send her graces, Lord to stand firm in her faith as she strives to serve You, Lord. She is so beautiful, Lord and I love her very much.

“Yes, My daughter. I am with her guiding and directing her steps. She is being closely guarded by angels of light, also.”

Thank You, Lord. Jesus, have You more You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My little lamb. Continue to prepare your house. You are beginning to doubt the timing of the move. Do as I encouraged you previously. It goes against you logic, I realize, but the timing is the same as we discussed.”

Lord, will You allow us to wait until after the first of the year? It will be difficult to list it right after Christmas.

“My daughter, it will be best to list it before the end of the year as I have suggested previously. However, if you decide another week is needed, I will manage the timing of the outcome for you in the same way. But, do not delay any longer. My plan is perfect; My timing is perfect. Still, I am asking much of you and your husband and I am a merciful God.”

Thank You, Lord. One week will make a difference in lessening the stress. Lord, please work everything out from a timing perspective on the building of our houses so we don't have to move and lease another home in the interim. That seems like a waste of resources, Jesus. Please intervene with the commission and reduce or cut through all of the red tape, so we can initiate the building process. Lord, I know there is a lesson You are imparting on us and that You are giving us this time to build our trust in You. If the time needs to be delayed, then that is fine. Please allow us to remain where we are a little longer so we don't get caught with our house being sold with nowhere to go. Jesus, I do trust in You and I know You can move mountains. I see You want us to step out in faith with no ground under our feet ahead. I simply ask You to work all things to Your good and for the good of our souls and also our future. Jesus, I trust in You.

“My daughter, all will be well. Trusting in Me means that you will also trust in My timing. You, who encourage others to trust in Me, will not be disappointed. I ask you to cease worrying about your house, for it is in My care, as well as the projects and mission I am entrusting to you. All will be well.”

Thank You for Your reassurances, Lord. It seems I need more encouragement now as I endure this cloudy atmosphere. Things seem so distant to me, Lord when before things of Heaven were within reach. I am unable to explain this disposition of my soul. There are no words to express what I am going through. You know what I am experiencing, Lord, and the easiest way to describe it is suffering.

“My daughter, your peace and the closeness you feel, the confidence you have in Me has been temporarily removed from you. You are experiencing to a very small degree what it is like for others who do not trust in Me.”

Lord, I do not understand this. I am still able to pray, though often distracted. I still hear Your voice in my heart and can enter the quiet place in my soul where you dwell, though not in the same way as before. I do not feel You have withdrawn Your presence from me. I don't know what You mean or what is happening only that I am not at peace and I pray and peace does not come. I thought it was because of the turmoil around me. I do not think of this as a darkness of the senses, which I recently learned I would go through later. Is this the same thing, Lord? It doesn't seem like it is, but I really can't think very clearly right now.

“My child, yes, this is what you are experiencing. There are different degrees of this disposition of the soul; however and I am not allowing you to be completely immersed in this darkness. The term you used, 'cloudy' is an accurate description. Continue to trust in Me, My little lamb and I will see you safely through this time of darkness in your soul. This is a valuable form of suffering in My Kingdom. When you are unable to pray, call out to the saints and they will pray for you. All will be well, My child. All will be well.”

Ok, Jesus. If You say so, I believe and I thank You for this trial, for loving me enough to send this time of cloudiness to me for my purification. Lord, I pray for those who do not know You, do not love You, do not trust You. How difficult their lives must be. How sad their poor souls must be as they cry out for the person to reach out and seek God. Hear the cries of their dear souls, Lord for they long to be loved by You, but do not know how to reach You. Have mercy on them, Lord. Show them the light of Your love, so they can see where You are, Lord and can move closer to You. Open their hearts to the warmth of Your love. It is agony to be without You, Jesus. Agony! I do not want them to be far from Your mercy and Your love. Jesus, enfold us all in Your Sacred Merciful Heart. Keep Your children safe in the refuge of Your Sacred Heart. I so love Your heart Jesus and that is where I wish to be. May each beat of my little, weak heart, beat in unison with yours, Lord. Lord, what can I do for You this week? I am at Your service, Jesus and in the service of Your Kingdom.

“My child, forgive those who persecute you. Ask for graces to love those who seek to harm you. Continue to offer kindness and encouragement to others, even though your heart feels numb. Thank you, My daughter for your kindness to (name withheld). This is what I ask of you this week, My daughter. It is especially difficult to show kindness to others and to listen to them in love when you are suffering. Focus on doing so, regardless of your suffering and many more souls will be saved. Bring My mercy to all you meet, My child. I will help you in this difficult task. I ask much of you, I realize but I walk with you and I walk with each one of My children. Pick up your cross, My daughter and reject the temptation to put it down, even when your cross is your brother or sister who is persecuting you. Hang in there, as you say for I am with you.”

Thank You, Jesus. I am so thankful for Your reassurances, Lord. Thank You that You never abandon us, Lord especially during our time of distress. Lord, please help those who are restless and frustrated with the commission meeting. It must be very difficult, Lord for those who left their homes to move close to the location of Your community. Help them to trust, Jesus. Give them a renewed sense of commitment and trust in You and Your timing. Help us to regain the unity we felt we once had, Lord. I pray, Jesus that we all endure this time of waiting. This is probably small in comparison with what we will experience in the way of trials in the future. Help us to pass through this time of unease and tension, Lord. Be with (name withheld) in each and every decision he makes. Give him the graces he needs each and every day, Lord as he leads this fledgling community of Your Mother's. Lord, we so want to do Your will. Help him as he seeks Your will for our community. I implore Your assistance, Lord.

"My daughter, I am with (name withheld) and I will guide him. He is being tested, also and I am forming him during the process. There are many voices with much advice for those in leadership positions. Tell My son to seek My direction in prayer. More prayer is needed so that My voice can be heard. Continue to pray for (name withheld) and I ask that your husband and you continue to be of support to him. In your current place, it is easier to see you have no hidden agendas. I ask you both to be of extra support to (name withheld) during this critical time in the formation and planning of My Mother's and My community. My darlings, I, Your Jesus am very pleased with the support you are providing to (name withheld) and the others. I know of your hard work to remain neutral of all, to be in union with each community member, praying for them, encouraging them and loving them. My son has a most difficult task and I will be ever present to him. He would do well to pray more and more to be assured of My guidance and direction. Regardless of the time in prayer, I am guiding him. It is easier to hear My voice when one is quiet and seeks time alone with me. My Mother walks with (name withheld) in a very special way. (Name withheld), My faithful son, hear My voice and that of My Mother's. Bring every burden, every decision to Me. Ask St. Joseph to guide you, just as He did the Holy Family. Follow the example of St. Joseph who was in the position of protecting My Holy Mother and Me. You will need to be the shepherd and protector of My Mother's community. This is imperative for the formation of Her community. Be a man of prayer, My son, even more so than you are now. Through prayer, the most difficult and puzzling situations will become clear. Just as I went up the mountain, apart from My disciples to pray, so you too must seek quiet and solitude each day, if only for a few moments. Bring every decision to me, My son and I will guide you in the way you should go. Second to your vocation of husband and father, is your role in leading this community. I walk with you, My son. Trust in Me and My Holy Pure Mother. Turn to us often in prayer. We love you. We walk with you and we will never leave you."

Thank You, Jesus for Your words for (name withheld). I continue to be moved to the core of my soul at Your kindness and Your mercy. Thank You, Lord for Your intimate involvement in our lives. You are complete love, my Savior. Thank You!

"You are welcome My grateful daughter. I ask much of you and your husband and in turn I give much. Your God cannot be outdone in kindness. I love you My son, My daughter. Thank you for giving Me your 'yes' to dramatically alter your lives in service of My kingdom. I have said before many will think you are running away. However, you are actually going to the direct lines of battle. Have no fear, My children. I go with you and I will go before you."

Jesus, may I ask a question about the meeting for our community that caused such frustration for some"

"Yes, My daughter."

What I told some about this being most likely, part of Your plan and that Our Lady was probably protecting us; was this correct? Did this go according to Your plan, Lord, or am I incorrect? Either way, I trust in Your plan. I am just wondering and want to know for myself.

“You were correct in what you said, My child. You were inspired by the Holy Spirit and all that you said was from Me. Each painful step in this process has been according to My plan. Only I know the hearts of men. Only I know the consequence of each decision and the timing of each decision. I am asking for each one of My children of the community to be an example of trust. In the future, even more trust will be required. All will reflect on this period of waiting, and the painful process of preparing and planning for My Mother’s community. They will recall one day, how even though things appeared to be different, My will was done. Those who were lacking in trust will learn to trust more the next time. Those who had trust in Me will grow even more in their trust. My Mother’s Community will come to fruition, My children. Do not spend this important time of formation, filled with anxiety and fear. Do not allow My adversary and yours any room in your hearts and minds for this creates confusion and impacts the peace and unity I so desire for you. Look upon this time of testing as a small dip in the road of Our journey together. When dips in the road are sighted, adjust yourselves accordingly. Pray more, offer sacrifices. See these dips in the road as small ones for your God is great and nothing is too big for Me to handle. Even a huge roadblock to you is a small molehill to Me, a speck if you will. The issue at hand is not the obstacle itself but the level of trust in Me when an obstacle is presented. I would like My children to put each barrier and each issue in proper perspective. I do not invite My children to form a community under My Mother’s mantle and at Her request, in order to watch you fail. I never set My children up for failure. You must give Me your ‘yes’ once and for all and never look back. Have the faith of a little child for My Mother and I can be trusted with everything and most especially with Our own plans. My children, I am not chastising you or scolding you, but only inviting you to see from My perspective. My Holy Mother is most precious to Me. Her communities have special favor in My eyes. I encourage you to trust, to pray, to love and to be at peace. Allow Me to work things out in the proper timing. I remind you there are many others involved in allowing this community and I love them also. I desire their conversion and the more exposure they have to My sons (names withheld) the more graces they are receiving. These examples of faith, love, fortitude, integrity and all of the values of My Gospel bring light to the souls of others. These are your brothers and sisters, My children and I love them and desire their hearts to be transformed by the light of My love. Be the salt and the light of the world My children of the community. Trust in Me. Trust in My most holy pure Mother Mary. She is wise, prudent and loving. She will guide Her community just as She guides My church. All will be well. Decide for Me. Trust Me and do not doubt your yes. I love you and I will not abandon My remnant. I remind you, souls are at stake.”

Thank You, Lord for Your words of wisdom, Your lessons of love, Your insight. You provide clarity when things are unclear. Thank You, My Lord and My God. I love You!

“And, I love you My daughter. Rest assured all will be well. Continue to walk with confidence into the week you face at work. I hear the prayers of My son, your husband and I see the goodness in his heart full of love for you and for your daughter. His prayers awaken many saints in Heaven to your cause and consequently many in Heaven are praying for you. Walk with this suffering awhile longer My daughter and all will be lifted soon. Your community is benefitting greatly, though you are unable to see this. I love you and I thank you for your love and your service.”

“I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of Holy Spirit. Go in My peace. Go in My love. Be light to others. I walk with you and I also carry you as needed.”
(smile)

Thank You, My Jesus. I love You.

“And I love you.”

October 5, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I adore, love and praise You. Thank You for giving us the opportunity to be here with You today. Thank You for Holy Mass this morning, Lord, for Your sacrifice of love on the cross for our salvation. I am grateful beyond words that You came to earth, ministered to Your people, healed them, loved them, taught them, established Your church, took our sins upon You, and died for our salvation. Thank You, Lord for the Church, the Sacraments, Your Holy Word, and for showing us the way. Help me always to follow Your way which is everlasting life. I love You, My Jesus!

“I love you, My daughter. I thank you and My son (spouse) for being here with Me. I look forward to Our time together. Give Me your concerns, your burdens, My child. I am here for you and will give you My peace. “

Thank You, my Lord and my God, that You care about our cares, our concerns, and our burdens. You are the life giving water, Jesus. Thank You that You are trustworthy and merciful. Lord, last week was really difficult. I know You already know everything, and so You know what a challenging week it was. Thank You for being with me in this difficult phase and for walking this road with me. Thank You, Lord for Your reassurances this morning. I realize there is nothing that can occur in my life without You knowing about and allowing. You are only concerned with our welfare and that of our souls and even if the worst imaginable circumstances occur, that it is Your will or they wouldn't. Lord, You could prevent things from occurring and in my life, whatever occurs I entrust to You ahead of time. I realized this morning that if I lose my job, it doesn't matter. You have said I'll be leaving this job in the springtime. If I hadn't known this (from You), I may have decided to leave earlier than You planned. If I do lose my job, I know it will be Your will, Lord. Keep me always in Your holy will. Enfold me in Your sacred, merciful heart.

“My daughter, I am well aware of the difficulties you are facing. This is a suffering for you. I am with you and I do walk this journey (with you). Do not fear the outcome. All will be well as we discussed and I reassure you, dear child. This suffering is a purification and is needed from you at this time. I will not allow anyone to harm you. Continue to lead My children assigned to you as you always have. Do not doubt yourself, for this is not a reflection on you.”

Jesus, it sure seems that it is to me. It has been similar to a 'character assassination,' but not so much my character as my abilities as a leader. This strikes at the core of me, Lord. Not that it really matters what people think of me and my abilities, because I've never felt valued in this particular organization, but it is as if everything You brought me through and to was all for naught. I know that sounds extreme, but Jesus it is how I feel. I guess I always thought of this as a "calling" even though I would have preferred to be a stay at home wife and mother. Since I felt I had to work, at least this was something I thought You provided me to not only provide for my family, but to be of service to others. Lord, You know I wanted to step down a long time ago, but I stayed because You said it wasn't time for me to leave, yet. So many times I have been tempted to look for another job, but have waited on You to give the word. Jesus, will You allow my reputation and credibility to be ruined here? If so, then I must need this lesson in humility. You were treated so much worse, Lord. Jesus, if I am to go out in disgrace, then so be it. Just be with me, Lord and give me graces to behave with love, forbearance, dignity, and grace. Give me the gift of forgiveness, Lord especially for those who are persecuting me. Jesus, I also ask

You to give my daughter many graces as she suffers at her workplace and is insulted and shunned for her faith in You. Lord, times are so desperate in this world, since we have lost our trust in You. Please allow (name withheld) and me to be lights for You in this darkness. Help us, Lord to do Your holy and perfect will, no matter the cost.

“My little lamb, I know of your pain, your humiliations. I, too experience what you experience each time those who are My hurting, wounded children, strike out at you, the one who is trying to help them. I know the sting of betrayal. I not only felt this when Judas betrayed Me, but when those closest to Me, abandoned Me in My most difficult time, the Crucifixion. At this time, I was most in need of their love, their support, but few there were to stand in prayer with Me. I am acquainted with betrayal, not only was I then, but I have experienced this through the ages, each time My children reject me. When you are rejected, My daughter, I am rejected. When any of My children are rejected for being ‘different’, meaning a follower and friend of Mine, I experience betrayal. I am with you and I am with your daughter. You feel you are not being persecuted for your faith, and so it isn’t suffering for Me, but My child I assure you this is precisely why you are being targeted. You do not see the depth, but only what is on the surface, My daughter. There is much more going on that cannot be seen with human eyes. You also suffer for your daughter and what she is going through. Is this not occurring at exactly the same time, My child? Both of you, mother and daughter experiencing very similar paths of suffering at the same time. Does this not give both of you even more sorrow, more pain, more suffering? My child, what of your husband who watches both his loving wife and his faithful daughter suffering persecution at the same time? My son suffers, too knowing he has recourse through prayer but through no other course of action. This is a certain kind of suffering, as well. Consider the Holy Family and what St. Joseph suffered during the events of My early life. He stood by as one who could pray and protect, but who could not take matters into his hands, either. This, My beautiful lamb is another form of suffering, equally difficult.”

Yes, Jesus. I see that it is and I am acquainted with this type of suffering, also. I can think of a time when I went through what he is experiencing (role reversal) and also I have gone through this with my children. Lord, it really is a suffering watching loved ones suffer. Please accept all that we are going through for the good of others. Jesus, please use our suffering to give others graces, for conversion. We also need conversion, Lord. Please forgive us our sins and help us to be Your instruments.

“My child, you have just answered the question, which has gone unasked and that is; ‘Why are we suffering in this way?’ It is needed for the good of others for graces of conversion. Thank you for your offering, My child, My little one. You are imitating Me when you suffer for the sake of others; when you are mistreated, though you have done no wrong; when you are betrayed and ask Me to help you to forgive.”

Jesus, I am not doing so well at this. I have complained and have at times felt sorry for myself. You make it sound as if I have been saintly in my suffering, but we both know otherwise. Lord, Your kindness and mercy is a sweet balm to my wounded heart. No one has suffered like You, Lord. Many of the saints have gone through and have endured horrible suffering. This is nothing in comparison and still, for me it is most difficult. Help me, Jesus to be love as You ask. Help me to be emptied of myself so that Your light shines within me, Your love flows through me and Your mercy is distributed in some way through my life. I love, You, Lord and I fail You far more often than I serve You. I am sorry that I am not more of what You desire me to be and I want to be closer to You, Lord. I desire to have Your image sealed on my heart, so that when others look at me, You are all they see. Jesus, these burdens cause me to focus on myself and that is what I like least about this situation. Help me to focus only on You and on those around me, Lord. Please help me, Jesus to be the disciple You want me to be. I am unable to be anything, Lord other than what Your graces provide. I am such a small person, but a big sinner and yet with You, Lord all things are possible. I lift my eyes to You and to my family in Heaven and beg Your assistance for (name withheld) and me, for my family! Lord, come to our assistance. Lord, make haste to help us.

“My daughter, this is a prayer that brings music to Heaven. I am and I will continue to assist you, My beloved children. Be courageous for a little while longer and I assure you, these burdens will be lifted. If you were unable to bear them, I would not allow them for you. Only a little longer, My child. Know that each day that passes with these persecutions, souls are being snatched away from My adversary and yours. Yes, My child, this statement gives you joy and hope. I love you and I accept the sufferings of your family also for the good and the security of the cross to which you and your family climbed on the Feast Day of the Exultation of My Holy Cross. You hesitate to write this, My little lamb, but it is true. My daughter, many of your fellow community members suffer during these days. I, your Jesus hold each one close in My Sacred Heart, for they suffer for love of Me, for love of My Pure Mother. These suffering days are a purification to prepare My (name withheld) community. This path you are taking at the invitation of My Most Pure and Holy Mother is of such spiritual proportions that the demons are shaking with rage, rage at My Mother’s children, rage directed at you and My little ones who follow Me and My Mother, for they cannot direct this rage at Us, for I am God, and Holy Mary is My Mother. So they inspire others to persecute My Mother’s children with focused attention on those discerning and following Her plan for communities. Do you see My child? This is what your suffering is about, under the guise of other’s dissatisfaction. They are unaware of who it is that is behind their disgruntled nature. They do not see that they play directly into My adversary’s hands. I have the final say, however and My adversary and yours does not see how I use all of this for the good of souls. You see, My darlings how much your Jesus loves? I use everything My poor children suffer and unite My children’s sufferings to Mine, the Messiah and Savior. I continue to save My children from the snares of the enemy through My children of light who accept and offer their sufferings to Me. All will be well, and one day in Heaven, you will all see the part you have played in the redemption of specific souls. Do not doubt this, as incredible as it may seem. I, your Lord and Savior want you and all of My children of light to pick up your crosses and follow me. Other souls are at stake and they need your prayers and your sacrifices. I love you and I thank you for agreeing to carry this for a short while longer.”

Ok, Jesus. I will be glad to do this for You and for those who have not yet experienced Your love. Only, stay with me and do not allow me to forget that I am Your daughter. Help me to suffer well and without complaint, Jesus. I so want to be like You and I know I cannot be, without Your divine grace, and miraculous assistance. Direct my heart, my thoughts, my attitude and my behavior, Lord so that I become what You desire me to be. I love You, Lord and I am ready to be transformed into Your little servant, Your devoted and faithful friend who is willing to do Your will, but who is too weak to do so. Carry me on Your shoulders, Jesus so that I go with You everywhere You go and so that I am unable to lose sight of You and Your beautiful, sweet nature. I love You, Lord. Forgive me for the times when I did not return Your love.

“My child, My little lamb, I forgive you. I love you. I know your heart is full of desire to follow Me and to be like My Mother. You are becoming the daughter of My heart though you are unable to see this. Take My hand and We will get through this and many more adventures to come. We will not fail, because I am God and I am unable to fail. When you hold My hand you go with Me and I with you. Recall the vision you had of being a very small child, as we walked hand in hand near the ocean. Do you recall this My little one?"

Yes, Lord. I do and I hope I never forget this. It was so beautiful.

"My daughter, I gave you this vision as My gift to see you through the difficulties ahead. You recall this occurred during another time filled with anxiety. This was the moment I gave this vision to you, but it was not for that moment, alone. It was to be a reminder for you that I, your Jesus hold your hand at all times in your life. I walk at your pace, focused intently on you. I listen, I hear, I consider what you say to Me. I respond with love and gentility. You are important to me. One could say during this vision, you observed Me giving you My undivided attention. Even though you were very small indeed, you were just as important to Me as an adult would be and I listened to you while we walked, enjoying the beauty of the sand, the ocean, the blue sky, the sunshine, and all that My Father has created. My little lamb, this is how We are to journey through your time on earth; in one another's company, focused on one another seemingly oblivious to the anxieties of the world. This can be reality for you as you deepen your trust in Me, your Jesus. A child has complete trust in his parents and does not worry where the next meal will come, or with paying the bills, or even with the weather. A child, in a loving home, goes through their childhood, loving, growing and learning in joy with few, if any cares. This is how you are to walk your journey. My beautiful children of light, holding your Master's hand, trusting in Me to steer the course. Yes, as adults, you all know to some degree, the seriousness of the times, and it is true that decisions must be made. The biggest and most important decision, My children is to decide whether or not you will follow Me and My Mother. If, you decide for Me, there will be crosses to carry, but the difference is that I will be able to carry them with you. When you refuse to follow Me and even refuse to listen to My Mother, you will still have crosses, My poor children, but where will you look; in what direction for assistance? You see, My children alive in the world will suffer crosses regardless. The difference is the source of assistance in carrying these crosses, and the outcome of such. For My children of light, crosses assist your brothers and sisters. The cross is your road to Heaven. There is purpose and value in the struggle and that makes all the difference."

Thank You, Jesus for Your words of life and Your lessons of love. Thank You for turning each moment into a lesson of love, Lord.

"You are welcome, My grateful daughter. How I love to teach you and all of My children as you journey on pilgrimage to Me. Have no fear, your Jesus whom you seek, walks beside you just as I did with My disciples on the road to Emmaus."

Thank You, Lord! Jesus, my husband (name withheld) asked me to pose a question to You for Your consideration/insight about his job. Should he leave his work now or wait until later? He is concerned for the amount of work to be done to prepare to move and also for more time with our family. Do You have anything to say to him about this, Jesus?

"Yes, My child. It is not yet time for this, but soon it will be. Tell My son to pray for direction and guidance. Remind him to call on St. Joseph for direction, also. For My son, it will be sooner than for you, My child. The time has not yet come, though. Prayer is what is needed. He will be directed by My Holy Spirit and when the time comes, he will know through prayer and due to the signs around him. For now, continue on the course I have laid out for you and prepare the house in the meantime. It is difficult, that I know, and that I see. Remember, I have given you much assistance from the saints assigned to your family and from those you pray to assist and intervene for you each night during your family prayer. Remember the legion of angels that surround you night and day. They are assigned to protect you and also to direct your path. Use your holy angels, My children for their mission is to assist you during your earthly journey.”

Thank You, Lord Jesus. Thank You for the multiple ways You provide for us. Thank you, holy saints in Heaven for your prayers and petitions on our behalf. You are faithful friends and our brothers and sisters in the Blessed Trinity. Dear Jesus, please bring vocations from our family. St Padre Pio, help us, pray for us. Thank you for all you do for us each day, known and unknown to us. Jesus, is there anything more You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My child. I desire My children to know of My love for them. I request their prayers and encourage them to pray more. Through prayer, I provide encouragement and direction. Bring everything to Me, My children, no matter how small the issue or concern may be. Nothing is too big or too small for Me, for I am the Lord God. Do not hide your concerns from Me, for I see them anyway. Let us discuss them, and allow Me to shed My light on them. You will then have clarity and will realize there is nothing too small or too large for your Jesus. Thank you, My daughter and My son for being with My presence in the Blessed Sacrament. I flow graces to you for you to carry to the world in which you live and move. Come, My children, come to adore Me in the Blessed Sacrament. Do not wait or put it off until tomorrow. Come, just as the shepherds did, that cold night in Bethlehem. They left their flocks to come adore Me. What will you need to leave to adore Me for one hour? Will you have to leave your livelihood? Will you have to leave everything to adore Me for one hour? No, you will only need to make arrangements. You will not be leaving your sheep as the shepherds did, which was their livelihood and their means for feeding their families. They had nothing, but left their greatest possessions and their flock, to follow Me. I ask little, but offer the greatest rewards. Go in peace now, My tired little ones. Go with My gratitude for your visit, your service and your love. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name, and in My Holy Spirit.”

Thank You, Jesus! I love You!

“And I love you!”

SERIOUS MESSAGE ASKING FOR PRAYER FOR VICTIM SOULS AND FOR THOSE WHO WILL PERPETRATE SUCH SINFUL AND VIOLENT ATROCITIES

Sunday, September 28, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, dearest Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I am very glad to be here with you today. I love, adore and praise you, my Lord and my God. Thank You for the beautiful sunshine, the wonderful Mass this morning and that we were present at (name withheld) baptism. Thank You, Lord for another little soul in Your kingdom. Praise be Jesus; now and forever!

“Hello, My daughter. I am pleased that you and your husband are here, also. I greet you both with much love from My Sacred Heart.”

Thank You, my Lord and my God. Lord, please be with (relative’s names withheld). He must be suffering greatly, Lord due to his illness. Please help them both as they bear this heavy cross. They love You so very much, Lord. I can’t imagine the emotional stress they are enduring. Please give them many graces, Lord during this most difficult time.

“My daughter I am with them during this most difficult time of suffering. I walk with them on their journey. I will send them many graces to enable them as they carry their crosses. Much will come from this time of Calvary, and because of their faith and trust in Me, their suffering will bear fruit for the harvest.”

Thank You, Lord that you are with them. They have always loved, served and followed You. They are bright, shiny stars, Lord for You. I am very sad for what they are and will endure, Jesus. Please heal my relative. I know that you can, Jesus if it is Your will, Jesus, I trust in You. Lord, please be with me this week as I face a most difficult week. Lord, grant me whatever graces are needed for each day, for I know not what each day holds, Lord but Tuesday will be particularly difficult. Give me Your peace, Lord, the peace that passes all understanding. Touch the hearts of the people, Lord. May they be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

“My child, I am with you and I will never abandon you. You are being put to the test, and I will give you peace to quiet the storm in your heart in such a way that others will take notice. Your witness through this trial is needed, My dear one. Allow My light to shine through you by showing love and through forgiving those who try to harm you. You will be protected My daughter. Not one hair of your head will be harmed. I will bring you through this in due time as I have other difficult situations. Allow this to be a time of purification. Accept this cross to be offered for other souls in need of conversion and healing. Many around you are wounded and they demonstrate their woundedness by lashing out at others. This happened to Me to a greater degree and it will also happen to My children. My child, you did nothing to cause this, though you have wondered about what you may have done to contribute to others’ dissatisfaction. In this case, you are blameless. My child, do not listen to the tempter who wants you to doubt yourself and your decisions. Have you not tried with every decision to be fair and just?”

Lord, I have tried to be, but that doesn’t mean I’ve made the best decisions.

“Of course not, My little lamb, but you have tried, have you not?”

Yes, Lord.

“That is all that I ask of you. My child, you are not God and therefore you are not perfect. You are applying the policies and principles laid out for you while still being lenient whenever possible within reason. That is the responsibility of leaders. My child, weather this storm under My Mother’s mantle and after the storm passes, you will see that there will be a renewed sense of calm in your soul. The atmosphere is always fresh and new after a storm, is it not?”

Yes, my Lord.

“And so it will be in your heart. You will experience a renewed sense of peace, calm and strength. You will have even more confidence in Your Jesus.”

Thank You, my Lord and my God! I love You.

“And I love you. Trust in Me.”

Yes, Jesus. Lord, have You anything You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My little lamb. I have much to say. You are wondering about the dream My servant and son had that you heard about?” [1]

Yes, Lord. I believe it was from You and that it was prophetic. I think it may be linked to what You have said to me in past weeks.

“My child this event dreamt about by My apostle was prophetic for your country. This sad event will come to pass. Pray for those who will be victims. Pray for their souls and for those who will perpetrate such sinful and violent atrocities. Those who will participate in these violent acts will be possessed by demons. Pray for them now, for their hard hearts can still change. Once they commit these murderous acts it will be almost impossible for them to change for they will have given over everything to the adversary.”

Lord, You can stop all of this. Please, Lord. Prevent them from committing such horrendous acts of violence, hatred and evil. You, Lord are the giver of every good gift. Grant them the graces for conversion. Protect Your children who do not deserve to be victims of such violence. Please, Lord protect the children of these families. They are the most pure and innocent ones, Jesus. Hide them even if they are in plain sight, or better yet, keep them out of harm's way. Jesus, I beg of You to protect the innocent victims; the families who are just trying to live and raise their children, Jesus. They are not looking for trouble, Lord and neither are we, Your children. Please convert the hearts of stone, Lord in those who seek to do violence. Miraculously remove the film which clouds their eyes, causing spiritual blindness and darkness. Give them eyes of compassion, hearts of flesh and love, and ears to hear Your good news, the news of life in You, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Jesus, I beg of You. What is it that I can do, Jesus? I am nothing, Lord but still You love me anyway. I know You love each and every child of Yours. Lord, Your love is the answer to all of our problems. Jesus, please I beg of You, do not allow this evil to come to pass on the land that has been consecrated to Your Mother, the Queen of the Americas.

“My little one, you are filled with longing and love for the future victims. This, I see, and this I know. My child I, like you, long for this destruction and death to pass over these beautiful families. I remind you of the great gift of free will My Father has given all of Our children.”

Yes, Lord. I remember and still I beg of You. Can they not change their hearts due to Your amazing grace and love? I know that You can change the hardest heart. I know that You, who parted the Red Sea and saved Your people, Israel, can also make a way for these families to escape such wrath and injustice. Lord, if You do not infringe on the free will of these evil perpetrators of violence, that I accept. You, Lord can still guide Your dear children to safety. You can part the Red Sea for them and bring them safely to new land where they will be free from the enemy's plans. Jesus, You did not change Pharaoh's heart, though You gave him many chances, but You still brought Your people out of Egypt and kept them from Pharaoh's armies. Please, Jesus, You can do anything and everything for You are all powerful. Jesus, please guide these families to a place of refuge and safety, even if their homes are destroyed. Please, My Merciful Lord and God.

“My child, I hear your prayers. It is up to the poor, lost, evil children to change. However, due to your love and pleading, which I am unable to resist, I will lead one family to safety.”

Only one, Jesus? But, Lord I care for each family. Please, Lord?

“My little lamb, I will call out to others, but only one family will listen and follow My directions which will lead them safely out of harm’s way. Do not cry, My child. This event will come to pass due to the hearts of My children of this nation who have turned against Me, your God.”

But, Jesus. There are many, many who love and serve You, Lord. Is that not true?

“Yes, My child. There are many who love and serve Me but few who do so completely. Few are the number who keep My Commandments. Pray, My little one. Pray and fast for what is to come, so that souls who perish will do so as they remain steadfast in their faith. Their martyrdom will bring fruit, but not until your nation undergoes much. Trials, My child purify. Much purification is required for hearts to return to Me. My sweet one, remember I, your Jesus have not and will not be the cause of such a calamity. It is not I. I Am is not to blame.”

Yes, My Jesus. I know this and I believe You are love and mercy itself. You are good, gentle, merciful, kind and just. I love You, Jesus. I know and I believe that You want peace, unity and love and nothing but goodness for all Your children. What is coming is the opposite and satan is the author of this vicious war, this evil and this slaughter of innocents. Still, Lord You have the power to protect them. I will continue to pray for Your mercy, Lord on the innocent ones in the path of such diabolical fury. You are Lord of the universe and You are the Lord of our nation, no matter what others say. They do not speak for the majority. Jesus, I understand we need a wakeup call, Lord and that You have already given us several. Jesus, please convert our hearts. Wake us up now, Lord before it is too late for so many. Keep us all under the mantle of Your holy Mother and protect us from evil, Lord.

“My child, do not think for one moment that My heart isn’t breaking for these innocent children of Mine, for it is. My Sacred Heart longs to put an invisible shield around each family and their home. I will not do this, though for that is interfering with the free will of My children who have followed the path of darkness. I will, however give these families warnings and will offer invitations for them to be away when this event comes to pass. My child, those who pray will heed and will be away when the evil one strikes. If more of My children followed Me and were praying on a continual basis, they would hear My voice and follow Me, just as the Holy Family left in haste when the angel appeared to St. Joseph in his dream. I am sad that this will not be the case, however I will open the ears of one family and their lives will be spared.”

Jesus, will You open the ears of another family? Lord, a big family with children? Open their ears, also, Lord. Allow the children of all of these families to hear Your voice and to follow You to safety. Please, God. You are perfect. Your will is perfect. If it is not Your will to lead little innocent lambs to safety, then so be it. I do not believe You will refuse these innocent little children, Lord who know nothing of evil, but only love.

“My child, I will welcome all who love Me into My heavenly kingdom.”

So be it, Jesus. Your will is perfect, though I do not understand such evil and violence, nor do I know how we can bear this atrocity.

“My daughter, you are to bear it just as My Holy Mother did; by standing in prayer at the foot of My holy cross. Her heart was broken and pierced by the lance of hatred for Me and yet, in the face of such violence toward God, She stood in love and willed Her heart to be united with Mine, in love for those who crucified Me. She stood there, watching Me, unable to take Her beautiful, trusting eyes off Me, Her Son, Her Savior, Her God. For she willed Herself to live through such horrific violence against the one sinless Man, the God of all, so that She could participate in My crucifixion of love. She, the Mother of God and the Mother of the Church prayed and loved. That is what I ask of you and of all of My children of light. Pray, offer sacrifices. Fast for conversion of souls. Continue to live the life of the Gospel, regardless of what goes on around you. Do not, I repeat, do not, My children take part in revenge and violence. Return hatred for love. Pray for your enemies and for those who persecute you. This is how My children are to act. That does not mean you are not allowed to defend your homes and your families. You are not only allowed to do so, I expect you to do so for you are responsible to defend your families. What I am referring to is the proactive vengeance on those perceived to be your enemies. Do not become like those who serve darkness for you My children, are children of light. You are Mine. Be like Me. Be like My Mother and My holy father, St. Joseph. Sometimes protecting your families means to flee to a place of safety. Be as gentle as doves and as wise as King Solomon. I will assist you.” (Jesus said serpents, but when I hesitated to write this, He lovingly changed His words to King Solomon. He knows how I detest snakes and the word “serpent” sends chills up my spine for it calls to mind the adversary.)

Thank You, Lord for Your words of warning and for Your teaching. Help us, Lord to listen to Your still, small, quiet voice in this world full of noise and distractions. Help us, Lord to turn back to You and to follow Your way of love. Help us to be brave and have courage in the face of such violent evil, for You are the One who we worship, and You are all powerful, all knowing and all love. Jesus, we trust in You. Jesus, we trust in You!

“My child, my child, would that more of My children loved and trusted in Me, Your Jesus. Oh, how different your world would be. I call My children back to the refuge of My sacred, merciful heart. Some hear My call, My invitation and come to Me. Many, many refuse My invitation. I want My children to be happy and free from the bondage of sin. Please, My children return to Me. Return now for the hour is late and darkness is fast approaching. Come into the light. Come now while you can still see some light, though the darkness and shadows descend. I am calling you to come into My holy and loving embrace where salvation and My Father’s Kingdom await you. I love you. Come now, My children. There is no time to waste.”

Jesus, I love You. Allow me to offer myself, Jesus for those who will refuse You. Take me, Lord. I want my children and Your children to love You, for You are not only deserving of love, You are the essence of love. Allow my life to be a living sacrifice for my brothers and sisters. Please, Jesus, I am small and nothing in the grand scheme of this world, but what I am and what I have I willingly give to You.

“Thank you, My precious little lamb. I accept your offering and I accepted it long ago. Your family will live for Me and will continue to walk the path to salvation. The sacrifices you and your entire family make will bring other souls to Heaven. This is also true for all My children who sacrifice their homes, and their way of life to follow My Mother’s invitation to live in Her communities. They will live the life of the cross and through the sacrificial love and their willingness to follow Me wherever I lead, no matter the cost, many souls will be saved. This, My child is the life of the rescue missionary who lays down his life for his brothers and sisters. Be an example, My children of light, for in this way, I will bring about My Father’s plan for Renewal. My dear ones, the time of the harvest is near. Be of good cheer. Pray for a spirit of peace and joy for My Father’s plan is unfolding. All will be well. A great springtime comes after the autumn harvest, but not without winter, My children. You will see winter and it will be long and hard. I speak metaphorically, of a spiritual winter, but I speak truth, for I am truth. Pray, dear children.

You are not praying enough and this is the battle cry. You are in a battle for souls. Take up your weapons, that is the rosary and the holy Mass. Take up your weapons and pray, fast and seek God. Obey My Commandments. Live holy lives. Stand tall for your confidence is in Me. My Little one, you struggle to write My serious words, but your heart is strong. Have no fear for I and My Mother are with you and all of My children.”

Jesus, I praise and thank You for Your messages of love. Your heart and Your words are so strong, Jesus. I feel only the smallest bit of Your power and yet it causes me to feel overwhelmed. Still, Your love shines through and Your mercy washes over me like a warm ray of light from the sun. Your presence brings peace, or I would not be able to bear such intensity. Thank You for Your grace, Lord to do Your will. Your will is perfect. Your will is holy. I love Your will. I beg You to bend my will and to melt it with the fire of Your love. Pour it into Your heart, Jesus where it will be molded in Your image and in Your will. Use us, Jesus. Use Your children of light. Bring us safely into the renewal, Jesus. Spare us, oh Lord. Help us to be witnesses in this time of darkness. I love You, all powerful, living God. I love You and I will serve You with all that I have. There is nothing else I can give You, Lord, so I give You me, small as that is. It is all I have to give.

“Thank you, My child. That is all I ask. I will enfold you in My Sacred Heart and in the Heart of My Immaculate Mother. I hold you, your husband (My son) and your children in My heart. I love you and I fill you with grace to love heroically. Be love, be light, be mine, Children of the Renewal. All will be well. Do not fear, for I am with you.”

Thank You, Lord. Thank You for my family, Lord. I am very grateful for my husband, my daughters and my son. Thank you for the beautiful friends you have given me to love. Thank you for my grandchildren and my entire family (my husband’s too). I love them, Lord and pray that no one will be lost. Keep them in the palm of Your hand, dear Savior. I entrust them all, each and every one, to You and to Your holy Mother Mary. I love and I trust You, Jesus.

“Thank you, My child. Now go in peace. I bless you and your husband in My Father’s name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in a spirit of peace and love. Fear none of the trials facing you for these will make you stronger, wiser, and will show My love for you. You will be renewed afterwards. Stay in prayer to remain at peace. I love you. All will be well. Ask others to pray for you. I love you. I walk with you and nothing can separate you from Me.”

Thank You for all the graces and blessings, Jesus. I owe You my life and my love. I say, ‘yes’ to You again Jesus, as I know my husband does, too.

“Thank you, My children, go in My love.”
